REV. JAMES TURNER, OFFICIATING

A LIFE REMEMBERED

Mr. Willie Dean Williams was born on October 6, 1953, to Mr. Otis and Mrs. Susie Mae Williams of Dawson, GA. Mr. Williams attended the public schools of Terrell County, graduating from Terrell County High School.

After attending Terrell High School, he was employed by Tri County Concrete for many years. His hobby was brick masonry, and he also enjoyed spending time with his family and friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents, two sisters: Mary Alice Williams and Shirley Williams; and three brothers: Kenneth Williams, J.C. Williams, and Johnny Williams.

He leaves to cherish his memories four brothers: Otis Williams, David Williams, Clayton (Thea) Williams, and Calvin Williams (Vivian); two daughters: Felicia Kelly (his oldest daughter) and Gabrielle Williams; two grandchildren: A'More Kelly and Camden Slack; and a host of nieces and nephews: Tyquan Williams, Shon Williams, Andre Williams, Jeffery Williams, Jermaine Williams, Danielle Williams, and Javetta Williams. Other close relatives include the Sapps, Wrights, Mays, Myers, Humphries, Williams, Toomers, and Clydes.

*In heaven's light, with bricks so bright,
He builds with love, a wondrous sight.
Each stone he lays, a story told,
In heavenly hands, his craft unfolds.
With every brick, a bond so true,
A testament to all he'd do.
Rest now, dear mason, your work is done,
In the skies above, you've just begun.*
