Reflections of Life

Ms. Bertha Loretha Calloway was born on July 7, 1967, as the seventh child to Johnnie Mae Calloway and Anthony Calloway. Her early education took place in the public schools of Terrell County, where she laid the foundation for a lifelong commitment to learning. Bertha graduated from Terrell High School in Dawson, Georgia, and went on to pursue her passion for early childhood education, earning her degree at the age of 27.

Throughout her career, Bertha dedicated several years of her life to serving the community. She worked at various daycare centers in Albany, and Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital. Her commitment to nurturing young minds reflected her deep love for children and her desire to positively influence their lives.

Family was at the heart of Bertha's life. She often expressed her pride and affection for her relatives, famously saying, "Everyone in my family looks good." This sentiment underscored the importance she placed on family connections and the joy they brought her.

On Tuesday, June 3, 2025, Bertha answered the Master's call and transitioned into eternal rest at Big Bend Hospice in Tallahassee, Florida. Her departure has left a profound void in the lives of those who knew and loved her.

Bertha leaves behind cherished memories and a legacy of love. She is survived by her three children: Clarence Calloway, Nathan Calloway, and Shanell Calloway. Additionally, she is remembered by her grandchildren: Tajaylen, Shaco, Joydan Williams, I'yonna Jordan, and Joesiah Dorsey; several sisters, and a daughter-in-law: Lacaja; and A host of other relatives and friends will also miss her dearly, each holding a piece of her spirit in their hearts.
