A Life Remembered

Eula Bernice Vaughn, born on June 1, 1942, in Dawson, Georgia, passed away peacefully on June 10, 2025, at the age of 83. At the time of her passing, she resided at 197 Lee St SW in Parrott, Georgia. Eula was a deeply spiritual woman, steadfast in her Christian faith, and her life was a testament to her unwavering belief in God.

Eula dedicated six years of service at Electric Coil (Orlando, FL) and 25 years of her life to Aramark Uniform Service (Orlando, FL), a career marked by diligence and commitment. Her work ethic and dedication were admired by all who had the privilege of working alongside her. Beyond her professional achievements, Eula was a pillar of her community, serving as the mother of the Church at St. Matthews Baptist Church. Her involvement in the church was an extension of her generous and loving nature, always ready to lend a helping hand and provide guidance to those in need.

Known for her sincerity and kindness, Eula touched the lives of many with her warm spirit and compassionate heart. Her spiritual strength and generosity were cornerstones of her character, and her love for her family and community was boundless.

Eula leaves to cherish her love and fond memories her son, Ricky R. Vaughn, and his wife Liz; five grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. Eula's loving spirit was evident in her relationships with family and friends. She cherished her close-knit family, which included her siblings: Johnnie E. Walton and his wife Zollie, Beatrice Harris, Morella Smith, Linda D. McMullen, Roy Walton and his wife Betty, and Carolyn White, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Eula is preceded in death by her mother, Lucy Mae Walton, and father, Johnny Will Walton (Poppa Stopper), her sister, Helen Bell, and her husband, Johnny, and her brother, Cleveland Walton.

As we gather to celebrate the life of Eula (Bea) Vaughn, we find solace in the words, "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord," (2 Corinthians 5:8), knowing she is now at peace in His presence.

Eula Bernice Vaughn leaves behind a legacy of love, faith, and service. She will be dearly missed and fondly remembered by all who knew her.
