*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers, that we saw sitting there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much for whatever part.*

Reflections of Life

Ms. Annie Bell Brown, affectionately known as Bird, was born on August 11, 1962, in Sasser, Georgia, to Clifford Browner and Rena Mae Brown. She attended the public schools of Terrell County.

From an early age, she expressed her faith and was baptized at Jackson Grove Baptist in Preston, Georgia, where her mother was originally from.

She cherished spending time with her family and enjoyed watching Westerns and cooking shows. Her favorite phrase was, "Let's take it to the dirt." As a homemaker, she found joy in ensuring that homes were clean, clothes were folded, and there was not a speck of dust in the house.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Mr. Clifford Browner and Rena Mae Brown.

Annie transitioned on October 22, 2025, when the Lord called His earthly angel back to heaven.

She leaves behind cherished memories with her son, Mr. Timothy (Charlotte) Clyde of Warwick, Georgia; two grandchildren, Mirandia Buford and Caleb Mitchell, also of Warwick, Georgia; as well as a host of cousins and other beloved relatives.

Psalm 23:1-6

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
