

REFLECTION OF LIFE

Mrs. Susie Mae Tell, the beloved daughter of Andrew Brantley and Susie Mae Brantley, was born on December 12, 1941, in Sasser, Georgia.

At an early age, Susie accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior and was baptized, beginning a lifelong walk of faith. She was a member of Sandergift Baptist Church and later moved her membership to Mt. Olive Baptist Church. She attended public school in Terrell County and later worked at Almark Mills in Dawson, Georgia, until declining health led to her retirement.

She was known throughout the community for her loving heart and her kitchen, which was always open. Cooking was one of the many ways she showed love—no one ever left her home hungry. Whether family, friends, or neighbors in need, she was always willing to help in any way she could. Her generosity, compassion, and servant's heart touched countless lives, and her legacy of love will continue to live on in everyone she helped and fed.

On Saturday, December 13, 2025, our dear wife, mother, sister, aunt, and grandmother answered the ultimate call to eternal rest at her residence in Sasser, Georgia. Although our hearts are broken by her passing, we rejoice in knowing that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Andrew and Susie Brantley; her daughter, Joanne Tell; and her sisters, Elouis Martin, Juanita Thornton, and Endia Harris.

Susie leaves to cherish her loving memories to her devoted husband of 65 years, Freddie Tell, Sr.; three daughters, Cynthia Cromedy of Conyers, Georgia; Denise Johnson; and Veronica Tell-Thomas (Michael) of Albany, Georgia; and one son, Freddie Tell, Jr. of Sasser, Georgia. She also leaves a devoted stepdaughter, Pricillia Jones, and a stepson, David Tell.

She is further survived by three sisters, Annie Mae Ousley of New Jersey; Jimmie Sue Johnson (Lewis) of Alabama; and Teretha Warren of New Jersey; two brothers, James Brantley of Covington, Georgia, and Curtis Brantley of New Jersey; and five sisters-in-law: Mollie B. Tell of Sasser, Georgia; Matte Lane of Greenville, South Carolina; Catherine Tell of New York; Betty Tell of New York; and Mildred McGill of Sasser, Georgia. She is also survived by a devoted niece, Carolyn Tell of Sasser, Georgia.

She also leaves ten grandchildren—Tory, Andre, Sheena, Kia, Steven, Marquisa, Generious, Tashiya, Shanora, and Zion; twenty-four great-grandchildren; six great-great-grandchildren; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, extended family, and dear friends.

Susie's life was a testimony of faith, love, and service. Her unwavering trust in God, deep love for her family, and willingness to serve others have left an everlasting imprint on all who knew her. Though she has laid down her earthly burdens, her soul now rests in the arms of her Savior. Her legacy will continue to inspire generations as we hold fast to the blessed assurance that we will meet again.

To Mike and Roni...

God placed you both along my way, to care for me
unselfishly, night and
day. Roni and Mike,
heaven knows.
The love you have shown, the seeds
you sowed.
Because of you, I rest in peace,
My earthly burdens now released.
God bless and keep you both for all you've done—
His will has been done..

To the family.....

THIS IS NOT GOODBYE

I did not want to leave you,
It was simply my time to go.
I know your heart is breaking,
So I need you to know—

That although you can no longer see me,
I'll forever be by your side.
I promise time will numb the pain
And gently dry the tears you've cried.

You can reach me in your memories;
Just think of me, I will be there.
In your dreams, we can visit yesteryear,
Where life felt lighter and free of care.

Please carry on and live your life,
I beg of you to try.
Just know we'll meet again one day,
As this is not goodbye.
