Her Life's Journey

Mrs. Juanita Roman, aged 86, was born on August 24,

1939, to Sally B. Rembert and Willie D. Rembert. She peacefully passed away on December 15, 2025. She was a devoted wife, loving mother, dedicated teacher, and a woman of remarkable strength, unwavering faith, and boundless compassion. Her strong will and genuine love for all were truly unmatched, leaving a lasting impression on everyone she encountered.

Throughout her life, Juanita's trust and confidence in Jehovah remained steadfast and untainted. Even until the very end, she never wavered or questioned God's divine plan. She gave her heart and soul completely to Jehovah, and her baptism as one of Jehovah's Witnesses reflected the depth of her faith and spiritual devotion.

Juanita took great pride in being a pillar of strength for her family. Being a loving wife and a nurturing, devoted mother were among her greatest aspirations and accomplishments. As a teacher, she extended her compassion beyond her home, selflessly shaping lives with patience, wisdom, and care. She lived her life with honor, dignity, and grace, always serving others with humility and love.

Mrs. Roman was preceded in death by her parents and three brothers: Willie D. Rembert Jr., Eugene Rembert, and Bobby Charles Rembert.

She leaves behind a legacy cherished by her loving husband, Alberto Roman Jr.; her children: Melvin Morgan, , Kenneth Hubbard, Adrian Hubbard, and Tre JayVaughn Hodges Roman; her siblings: Roy Rembert, Floy Rembert, Juanita Rembert Roman, Eunice Rembert Starling, and Marjorie Rembert Williams; and her nieces: Taryn Russell, Tasheia Campbell, and Anton Hammonds.

Today, while we feel the profound loss of her presence, we choose to celebrate the beautiful life Juanita Roman lived rather than to mourn her passing. Her legacy of faith, love, and service will continue to live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.
