A LIFE REMEMBERED

Curtis T. Price

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters."

— Psalm 23:1-2

Curtis T. Price was born on September 27, 1983, to the union of William and Carol Price of Albany, Georgia. He received his education in both the Randolph County and Dougherty County school systems, later graduating from Westover High School, where he developed a love for football and formed lasting friendships and cherished memories.

At an early age, Curtis was baptized and attended Union Baptist Church in Shellman, Georgia, where he began his spiritual journey and faith foundation.

Curtis attended Fort Valley State University, where he was a proud member of Alpha Phi Omega. He was employed with American Art Clay in Indianapolis, Indiana, as a Machine Operator and was known for his strong work ethic, warm personality, and friendly spirit.

Curtis was preceded in death by his brother, William Price; his maternal grandparents, Nelson and Freddie Jones; and his paternal grandparents, Willie C. and Gertrude Price.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving parents, William and Carol Price of Albany, Georgia; two sisters, Marquisha (Ronnie) of Snellville, Georgia, and Brittany of Albany, Georgia; four uncles, Jimmy (Inell) and Keith (Latasha) of Albany, Georgia, Timothy (Miranda) of Bronwood, Georgia, and Reggie (Katrena) of Prosper, Texas; three aunts, Priscilla of Albany, Georgia, Dianne of Shellman, Georgia, and Marilyn (James) of Fort Mitchell, Alabama; his fiancée, Kendra Armour of Indianapolis, Indiana; and a host of cousins and friends, all of whom he loved dearly.
