

You're Always in Our Hearts

For My Mother

Mom, I will miss you with all my heart. As your firstborn, I'll always cherish being your "Black Beautiful queen." Thank you for loving me out loud and teaching me how to love others the same. I am the woman I am because of you. I admired your faith, your beauty, and your generous heart. You fought a good fight and stayed faithful. Moma, I know you're in heaven rejoicing with Aunt Barbara, Aunt Ethel, Aunt Ruthie, Aunt Antionette, Aunt Rikkie, Uncle Clay, and Granddaddy. What a beautiful reunion that must be. We love you and will continue to make you proud. Rest well, my beautiful Queen. Love you, Genia

For My Grandma

I'm so grateful to be with you for 19 beautiful years. You saw me enter this world, and I held your hand as you left it. From my first breath to your last, we were connected — and we always will be. Thank you for the laughter, the long talks, the gossip, the cussing me out for your Lays chips and orange Sunkist, the little moments that now mean everything. You protected me and corrected me. You loved me enough to make me better. You gave — even when you didn't have — and showed me what real love looks like. Most of all, you taught me to keep God first. To pray. To trust. To keep going. Grandma, I will miss you more than words can say, but I promise to make you proud. Until we meet again — Forever grateful to be your first-born grandchild, I love you forever. Jaleese

Momma and Grandma,

Two lifetimes of love in one gentle heart, A guiding light from the very start. Mother and Grandmother, names held so dear, your love stays with us, though you are not here. Your hands were the ones that nurtured and held, with stories of wisdom, all worries dispelled. A gentle embrace that could calm any storm, keeping us safe, keeping us warm, you planted the seeds of kindness and grace, leaving a warmth that time can't erase. A Mother's devotion, a grandmother's cheer, we feel your sweet presence when we hold you near. Though the family chain is broken in two, We Cherish the memories we shared with you. Part of our hearts went with you that day, but you left us your love to light up the way. We miss your soft laughter, your caring, wise ways, and treasure the light of those sunny, past days. A Cherished Mother, a grandma so true, we love you forever, in all that we do. With Love Always Rose, Dre, Aaliyah, Alysse, Delicia, Skylar and Mason

My Wife, My Love

You were my heart, my home, my best friend. Loving you was the greatest blessing of my life. Now I must learn to live with your memory instead of your hand in mine. But your love still surrounds me, steady and true. Until we meet again, my beautiful wife, I will carry you in my heart — always. Love you, Eugene

From your caregiver Dank:

This morning, I opened my eyes and thought of you. And I know tomorrow will be the same. And the day after that. And the one after that too. That will never change, I will never stop thinking about you, loving you and missing you.

Reflections of Life

Kim Leah Littleton was born on October 18, 1957, in Detroit, Michigan, to the late Benjamin and Patricia Richbow. She united in holy matrimony with Eugene Littleton on April 15, 1982. Their bond was one of love, commitment, and devotion.

Kim attended Mumford High School in Detroit, Michigan, graduating in 1975. She continued her education at Eastern Michigan University, where she earned a Bachelor of Social Work degree in 1980.

Kim began her professional career at Hutzel Hospital Dialysis Clinic and later worked at multiple nursing homes throughout Detroit, Michigan, as a social worker and activity director. After relocating to Fort Gaines, she was employed at Franklin Hardwood until 2005. Kim was deeply dedicated to caring for her grandchildren and extended that same love and compassion to everyone she encountered.

A devoted church member, Kim faithfully served at Springfield Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Roosevelt Gardner. She loved her Lord and Savior wholeheartedly, and her faith was the foundation of her life.

Kim transitioned to her heavenly home on March 1, 2026, at her residence. She is preceded in death by her father, Benjamin Richbow; her mother, Patricia Lowe; her father-in-law, Wesley Littleton; her sister, Rikki Robinson; her brother, Clay Richbow; her brother, Theodore Lowe; her sister-in-law, Barbara Littleton; and her best friend, Ellmetta Payne.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving and devoted husband, Eugene Littleton; her three children: Eugenia Littleton of Phenix City, AL; Helen Littleton of Eufaula, AL; and DeAndre Littleton of Atlanta, GA; her godson, Richard Banks of Detroit, MI; her brother, Wilfred Littleton of Fort Gaines, GA; Stacey Littleton of Las Vegas, NV; her sister, Lorrie Richbow of Detroit, MI; her favorite uncle, David Richbow of Las Vegas, NV; her six grandchildren: Jaleese Scott, Aaliyah Brooks, Alysse Palmer, Delicia Pinkard, Skylar Littleton, and Mason Littleton; a special niece, Tiffany Richbow of Detroit, MI; her best friend, Loretta O'Hara; her special caregiver, Tekilo Jackson; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
