Reflections of Life

Mrs. Virginia Paramore Clark was born on September 27, 1941, in Cuthbert, Randolph County, Georgia, to the late Whit Paramore and Nellie Collier Paramore. She was the youngest of fifteen children and was affectionately nicknamed "Vee" by her parents. To many who knew and loved her, she was warmly known as "Miss Vee."

Virginia was educated in the public schools of Randolph County, Georgia. At an early age she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and joined Mount Vernon Baptist Church. Later, she united with New Salem C.M.E. Church alongside her husband, where she became a devoted and faithful member. She sang in the adult choir, enjoyed reading and studying her Bible, and faithfully supported the various ministries of the church. She served as a missionary and church leader and was actively involved with the Relay for Life team at New Salem for many years.

Virginia was united in holy matrimony to Mr. John Arthur Clark. To this union two children were born: Reginald Clark and Veronica Clark Mitchell (Jacob). She was a loving and dedicated wife and mother who cherished her family deeply.

She was employed by Kellwood Company for over 25 years. In 2005 she began working with the Randolph County School System, where she faithfully served until 2020. She also worked at Dollar General from 2006 until 2013. In addition, she was a certified nursing assistant (CNA), demonstrating her heart for caring for others. Her strong work ethic, compassion, and dedication were evident in every role she undertook.

On March 1, 2026, in Albany, Georgia, Virginia Paramore Clark peacefully departed this earthly life. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, John Arthur Clark, and her son, Reginald Clark.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: her devoted daughter, Veronica Clark Mitchell (Jacob); one loving sister, Annie Ruth Paramore Wilborn (Eddie); two grandsons, Christopher Hayes and Jeremy Clark (Rae-Chelle); five great-granddaughters, Christina, Christal, Nyla, RaeAnna, and RaeMoni; two great-grandsons, Jeremy Clark II and Robert; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

Mrs. Virginia Paramore Clark will be remembered for her unwavering faith, gentle spirit, servant's heart, and deep love for her family and community. Her legacy of faith, strength, and compassion will continue to live on in all who were blessed to know her.
