The Family

Psalms 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A LIFE REMEMBERED

Curtis Lee "Slick Tic" Hall was born in Albany, Georgia, on December 10, 1959. He was educated in the Dougherty County School System and graduated from Monroe Comprehensive High School. He confessed Christ and was baptized at an early age. He later joined Sardis Baptist Church in Terrell County, Georgia.

He was formerly employed by the Dougherty County School System and M&M/Mars. Curt loved Annie Ruth, his family, and sports. Before his health failed, he enjoyed barbecuing and eating good food.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Paul Hall and Betty Jean Hall Covin; his brother, Rod Picko Covin; his grandparents; and a host of aunts and uncles.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife, Annie Ruth Nathan Hall; his three daughters: Cartrice Hall-Mullins (Eric Battle) of McDonough, GA; Lakeysha Hall of McDonough, GA; and Tiara Lawrence of Ellenwood, GA; a host of grandchildren: Carriace "Bre" Mullins of Albany, GA; Carlos "Trey" Mullins Jr. of Albany, GA; and Cameron Battle of McDonough, GA; great-grandchildren: Da'Riyah McCray of Albany, GA, and Da'Niyla McCray of Albany, GA; his siblings: Jacqueline (Bubba) Butler; Debra Ann Hall; Julius (Linda) Covin Sr.; Angela (Melvin) Sumbry; and Annie Mae Potts. He also leaves to cherish his memory three loving aunts: Wilma Collins, Ruthie Bannister, and Evelyn (Bobby) Davis; two uncles: Dave (Vivian) Hall and James Hall; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Curtis, though your days among us were too brief and grief at your loss is never ending, we draw comfort from the knowledge that you have found safe refuge in the Lord and in our hearts, where no darkness or pain can touch you now. We bless you with our love, light, and gratitude.

Therefore, we make this Resolution of Respect: Whereas Curtis, born December 10, 1959, has transitioned to eternal rest, the death of Curtis does not diminish the profound benediction of a life lived as a born Christian, nor does it diminish our love and admiration for him.
