A LIFE REMEMBERED

Mr. Henry James Prince was born on March 27, 1954, to Lula Mae and Miles Prince Sr. in Shellman, GA.

Henry grew up in the Shellman community and attended the public schools of Randolph County. At a young age, he confessed his love for Christ and was baptized at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church in Shellman. After he finished school, he moved to Atlanta, GA, where he worked in the construction field. He worked with several different companies during his time in Atlanta.

He was a loving and devoted father to his two children, a son and a daughter: Patrick Coleman and Cecily Brooks, both of Atlanta, Georgia.

He was an avid sports fan and could often be found playing a variety of sports. He loved boxing, playing basketball, and shooting pool. He also served as a Boy Scout leader while in Shellman, GA.

Henry transitioned to be home with his Heavenly Father at Dawson Health and Rehabilitation Center on March 12, 2026. He was preceded in death by his parents, Miles Prince Sr. and Lula Mae Prince, and a sister, Stella Mae Prince.

He leaves his legacy of life and love with his two children, Patrick Coleman and Cecily Brooks, of Atlanta, GA; his siblings: Lillie (Gary) Oliver of Morgan, GA; Willie (Ann) Prince of Albany, GA; Miles Prince, Jr., of Shellman, GA; Leroy Prince of Shellman, GA; Margaret (Harvey) Moussavou of Shellman, GA; and Milton Prince of Atlanta, GA; six grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and close friends — all who will miss the sound of his laughter and the feel of his love.
