A Letter to My Son

Man, you broke my heart with this. Mama cannot express how much I enjoyed the last three years that we spent together. Waking up each morning to have breakfast and finishing each night with dinner with you taught me more than you will ever know. From the moment you were born, you captured a special place in my heart, and it grew the older you became. Son, you cannot imagine the love I have in my heart, soul and mind. These last few days have been a testament to how much God loves me, because there is no other way I could survive you leaving. Tell Grandma how much I miss her, and I will see you again, my son. I wish heaven had a phone.
