A LIFE REMEMBERED

Mr. Claxton Jermaine Bell was born on April 26, 1980, to Johnnie Mae Bell Harvey Brown. Claxton was educated in the Terrell County public school system. In July 2001, he answered the call to service by enlisting in the United States Navy. During his distinguished military career, which concluded in December 2005, he served with honor in Operation Iraqi Freedom, embodying the courage and selflessness of a true patriot.

Claxton believed deeply in the pursuit of excellence. Following his military service, he dedicated himself to higher education and professional development. In 2006, he earned a diploma in Medical Assisting from Concorde Career College. In 2018, he was conferred an Associate Degree in Business Management from Albany Technical College. In 2021, he achieved his Commercial Driver's License and embarked on a successful career as a professional driver for PAM Transportation.

On November 9, 2001, Claxton was united in holy matrimony to his soulmate, Constance Bell. Together, they built a life rooted in love. Claxton was a provider and a protector, not only to his biological children but to his extended family as well. He opened his heart and home to raise his niece, Kyndal Harvey, and his brother-in-law, Denzell Harvey, with the same love and guidance he afforded his sons.

On May 5, 2026, he peacefully transitioned into eternal rest. Claxton now rests in eternal peace, reunited with his grandmother, Ada Lean Bell; his father, Riley Brown; and his dear friend, Wesley Williams. A man of profound integrity, Claxton's life was a testament to the power of resilience, the value of hard work, and an unwavering devotion to his family and country.

Claxton's legacy will be carried forward by his loving and devoted wife, Constance Bell; his mother, Johnnie Mae Bell Harvey Brown; and his three sons, Kelmarday Johnson, Miterian Johnson, and Dayvane Bell; and his granddaughter Baislee Johnson; He also leaves behind his niece, Kyndal Harvey, and his brother-in-law, Denzell Harvey, whom he raised as his own.

He is survived by his brothers: Deon Bell (Latreasa), Myron Bell (Sonya), and Riley Brown Jr. (Shakibra); and his sisters: LaToya Bell (Byron Thomas), Chyquandra Alston, and Lora Molden. His memory will be honored by his uncle, Arthur Be Bell (Freddie Mae); his aunts, Johnnie Pearl Bell and Mary L. Hardwick; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, lifelong friends, and a very special cousin Jessie Pearl Bogan.
