The Family

Psalms 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A LIFE REMEMBERED

Mr. Johnny C. Minter of Dawson passed away peacefully on Tuesday, May 19, 2026, at Wilson Hospice House, surrounded by his loved ones.

Born on December 1, 1962, in Terrell County, he was the son of the late Mrs. Johnnie Bell Minter Smith. Raised in the Baptist faith at First Shiloh Baptist Church in the Old Field of Southwest Georgia, Johnny carried those values throughout his life: faith in God, love for family, hard work, and service to others.

He was a graduate of the Terrell County Public School System, and spent much of his life as an entrepreneur, operating his own moving company, Red Ball Moving, in Atlanta, Georgia.

Known for his deep love of family and his vibrant, entertaining personality, Johnny never met a stranger. He was always willing to lend a helping hand and was truly the life of the party and of family gatherings. His favorite quote was to tell his family, "Everybody ain't gone make it." Although he did not have any biological children, he treated his nieces, nephews, and young cousins as his own children.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Mrs. Johnnie Bell Minter Smith, and his oldest brother, Willie James Minter.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving sisters: Mary (the late M.C.) Jordan; Minister Mamie (Kenneth) Smith Williams; and Joe Ann Magwood, all of Dawson, Georgia; his brother, Mark (Tabitha) Minter; his aunts, Annie (the late Willie James) Billings and Catherine Minter of Dawson, Georgia; and Ruby Minter of Miami; his uncle, John Thomas Minter Jr. (Shirley) of Radcliff, Kentucky; a dedicated niece and nephew, Lashandria Smith and Latavious (Crystal) McIntosh; extended family Evelyn, Teneshia, and Amanda of Atlanta, Georgia; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will forever cherish his memory.

The family wishes to express heartfelt gratitude to the staff, residents, and volunteers of Dawson Health and Rehabilitation for the many years of kindness, compassion, and exceptional care shown during his rehabilitation journey.

*"Well done, good and faithful servant."
