REFLECTIONS OF LIFE

Mr. Timothy Larmont Clyde (aka “Tim”) was born on May 19, 1976, in Sasser, Georgia, to the late Kenneth Clyde and Annie Bell Brown. He attended the public schools of Terrell County.

Timothy worked as a machine operator at Marvair in Cordele, Georgia, for over 10 years. He truly enjoyed his position and his time there. Tim will be remembered for his love of Georgia sports teams, spirited debates with fans of opposing teams, competitive card games, and the joy he brought wherever he went. He enjoyed firing up the grill, celebrating special occasions, and spending quality time with those he loved. Tim lit up any room and always had a smile on his face.

One of his favorite sayings was “Fam,” his short, loving term for family or anyone with whom he shared a special bond. He brought peace, comfort, and laughter to the hearts of many and will be deeply missed. He was preceded in death by his parents, Kenneth Clyde and Annie Bell Brown; his maternal and paternal grandparents, Mr. Clifford Browner, Rena Mae Brown, Ruby Clyde Andrews, and Charles Andrews; his uncle, Thomas Clyde; and his brother, Kenneth Clyde Jr.

On May 23, 2026, Timothy departed this earthly life surrounded by loved ones and was called to his eternal home.

He leaves to cherish his memories a devoted partner, Saresa West, who stood by him from the beginning until the very end; three brothers, Johnny (Betty) Loud, Randy (Rachel) Loud, and Kentrell Clyde; one sister, Stephanie Loud; nieces and nephews; and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.
