REV. JAMES MARTIN, OFFICIATING

A LIFE REMEMBERED

It is with deep sadness that I announce the passing of Arthur James Martin, who departed this life on May 27, 2026, at the age of 83.

He was born on December 23, 1942, in Randolph County to the late Madison Martin and the late Florine Williams. He was employed with Burgin Lumber Company in Cuthbert, Georgia, for about 30 years until his retirement. He passed away peacefully at the hospice house in Marietta, Georgia, after fighting as hard as he could.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Ruby Nell Martin, and his granddaughter, Teneka Berry.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving children: Donna Bonner of Detroit, Michigan; Michelle McCrary of Fort Gaines, Georgia; Cynthia Berry of Shellman, Georgia; Donna Martin; Jennifer Singletary (William); Latavia Martin of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; and Felisha Kelly (Jimmy) of Coleman, Georgia.

He is also survived by one brother, Rev. James Martin (Bessie) of Blakely, Georgia; one brother-in-law, Floyd Culver of Abbeville, Alabama; and one sister-in-law, Willa Stanford (Jabo) of Abbeville, Alabama.

He leaves ten grandchildren: Amber Bonner; Donovan Bonner of Detroit, Michigan; Jacquetta Price; Teneka Price of Fort Gaines, Georgia; Anthony Berry Sr. of Albany, Georgia; Latonya Berry of Albany, Georgia; Jalisa Ollison; Kenya Ollison; Rasean Jones of Winston-Salem, North Carolina; and Aaliyah Martin of Marietta, Georgia. He also leaves thirteen great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
