APOSTLE BOBBIE KENDRICK, OFFICIATING

A LEGACY OF LOVE

Mary Ellen Kendrick Jeter was born on September 25, 1952, to the late George Riley Kendrick, Sr. And Mattie Hardrick Kendrick in Dawson, Ga. Her mother took pleasure in making their house a home and was affectionately known as Ms. Honey. Her father was a carpenter by trade and known around town as Jack (Jack of all trades) Kendrick.

At a young age, Mary confessed her love for the Lord and was baptized at Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church in Dawson, Ga. Mary graduated from Carver High School in 1970. Upon graduation, she moved to Hartford, Connecticut and started working at Hartford Hospital where she met and soon married the love of her life, Dwight Jeter, Sr and two bouncing baby boys were a gift from God to make their family complete. After staying in Hartford for many years, they relocated back to Georgia, residing in Lilburn. She joined Salem Baptist Church in Lilburn under the leadership of Dr. Richard B. Haynes. She served as a faithful member until her health begin to decline.

She worked for over 30 years at Traveler's Insurance Company. until she retired in 2018.

She was preceded in death by her parents, George Riley Kendrick, Sr. And Mattie Hardrick Kendrick, three sisters: Thelma Kendrick Powell, Flossie Kendrick Johnson, and Dora Ann Kendrick Brandful; two brothers: George Riley Kendrick, Jr. and Willie Kendrick.

She leaves her legacy of love to her devoted husband, Dwight Jeter, Sr. of Lilburn, Ga.; two sons: Dwight Jeter, Jr. and Shaun (Brittany) Jeter, both of Lilburn, Ga., one grandson, Kedrick Jeter, of Orlando, Fla; two sisters: Mary Kendrick Woodson, of Dawson, Ga and Sherilyn (Edward) Kendrick Jackson, of Atlanta, Ga.; one brother: Bobbie "Joe" Kendrick, of Dawson, Ga., one sister-in-law: Shaunda Jeter, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other extended family members and a very dear friend Beverly.

Mary Ellen Kendrick Jeter left home at a young age to carve her own path in the world and today brings a full circle moment as she is back home to rest in peace and love.

Recessional

Today we pause to honor and remember a woman whose love left an everlasting imprint on every heart she touched—Mary Ellen Jeter.

She was a devoted wife, a faithful sister, a nurturing mother, and a loving aunt, A woman of grace and strength whose presence was a gift from the very start.

And while we miss her presence,

We find comfort in knowing that she now rests in the loving arms of our Heavenly Father.

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant."
Matthew 25:23

Forever loved. Forever remembered. Forever cherished.

In loving memory of Mary Ellen Jeter.
