Reflections of Life

Tasha Walton was born on December 16, 1984, to Valerie Walton and the late Baby John Walton in Cuthbert, Georgia. She attended school in Randolph County, graduating in 2003. She earned a degree in Criminal Justice from Albany State University. She was employed with Gateway Foundation Correction until her health failed.

Tasha lived her life with grace, kindness, and an unwavering love for her family and friends. She had a gift for making everyone feel valued and heard, and her laughter could brighten even the darkest day. Whether she was sharing a quiet moment at home, offering a helping hand to a friend, or celebrating life's milestones, she did so with a full and generous heart.

Tasha departed her earthly life on May 27 at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital in Albany, Georgia. She was preceded in death by her father, Baby John Walton; her brother, Steven Bernard Collins; her grandmother, Rosetta Hunter; and both her grandfathers, George Smith and John Walton Jr.

Tasha leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Eric Williams of Iron City, Georgia; her mother, Valerie Walton of Cuthbert, Georgia; two sisters, Rosea Harris (Torre) and Erica Daniels, both of Cuthbert, Georgia; four nephews, Jamell Thompson Jr. (Leslie) of Phenix City, Alabama; Tramaine Lewis of Norfolk, Virginia; Kalik Daniels of Cuthbert, Georgia; and Aiden Martin of Cuthbert, Georgia; one niece, Syprus Walton of Benevolence, Georgia; grandmother: Robbie Mae Walton of Columbus, Georgia; one great-nephew, Sy'Aire Walton; one great-niece, Autumn Thompson; a very special sister-in-law, Sherlonda Fields (Derrick) of Iron City, Georgia; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

By Her Husband:

I hold the quiet space you left behind. In every shadow, your sweet grace I find. My lifelong love, my partner, and my guide,

I walk this path with you still by my side.

By Her Mother:

I held your heartbeat first, my precious child, so deeply loved, so beautiful and mild. Though time moves on and skies are turning gray,

A mother's love will never fade away.

By Her Sisters:

We shared the secrets, laughter, and the tears, A bond that grew and strengthened through the years.

In every cherished memory we keep, Dear sister, in our hearts you gently sleep.

Together:

Though grief may cast a shadow on our days, Your spirit lights our path in gentle ways. Until we meet beyond the distant shore, We love you now, and we will forever more.
