Reflections of Life

Mrs. Pinkie Mae Moore, affectionately known and dearly loved by her family and friends, peacefully entered eternal rest on Thursday, June 25, 2026, in Plains, Georgia, at the age of 76.

Pinkie Mae Moore was born on April 3, 1950, in Blakely, Georgia, to the late Turner Gilbert Jr. and Minnie Lee Gilbert. She received her education through the Dougherty County Public School System and graduated from Monroe High School. At an early age, Pinkie accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. She first worshiped at Mt. Pilgrim Baptist Church and later united with Mount Hebron Baptist Church, where she remained a faithful and devoted member. Her unwavering faith guided her throughout her life, and she loved the Lord with all her heart. She believed in the power of prayer and found joy in worship, gospel music, and serving others with kindness and compassion.

Mrs. Moore faithfully worked for more than twenty years at Merry Acres, where she was admired for her dedication, dependability, and strong work ethic. She took great pride in her work and built lasting friendships throughout her years of service. Pinkie was a devoted wife, loving mother, cherished grandmother, proud great-grandmother, caring sister, loving aunt, and faithful friend. She was well known for her exceptional cooking and sewing gifts she lovingly shared with family and friends throughout her life. She enjoyed preparing meals that brought loved ones together, listening to gospel music, and watching classic westerns. Her greatest joy came from spending time with her family, making everyone feel welcome, loved, and cared for. Her gentle spirit, warm smile, and generous heart left a lasting impression on everyone she met.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories her devoted husband, Ollie Lee Moore of Albany, Georgia; her beloved children, Sabrina Moore and Larry Moore Sr., both of Albany, Georgia; her cherished grandchildren, Quintavious (Shaveka) Moore, Kenyuanna Moore, LaTiffany Moore, Shabreka (Leonard) Minter, Ny'Asia Moore, and Larry Moore Jr.; and her precious great-grandchildren, Messiah Moore, Calvin Brown III, Kingston Minter, Levi Minter, Justice Moore, Larry Moore III, Jaedyn Phillips, and Deandre Parker; and a bonus child Quincy Moore.

She is also survived by her loving sisters, Pearline Gilbert, Latricia Gilbert, and Jacquelyn (Jeffery) McDowell; her loving brother, Christopher Johnson; her sisters-in-law, Jerri West, Lucy Sullivan, and Thelma Gilbert; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, church family, neighbors, and dear friends who will forever cherish her memory.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Turner Gilbert Jr. and Minnie Lee Gilbert; her brothers, James Edward Gilbert, Emory Gilbert, Alfonzo Gilbert, Fred Gilbert, Ralph Gilbert, and Marcus T. Johnson; her sisters, Ruby Nell Gilbert, Betty Jo Gilbert, Lula Mae Gilbert, and Georgia M. Hilson; and her beloved niece, Tandia Brown.

A Final Tribute

*The hands that prepared so many meals are now at rest.
The heart that loved so deeply now rests in perfect peace.
The voice that offered comfort has been called home.
Although she is no longer with us in body,
her faith, her love, and her legacy will continue to live in every life she touched.*
