A Life Remembered

Ms. Daisy Ray, affectionately known and dearly loved by her family and friends, peacefully entered eternal rest on Sunday, August 16, 2026, in Albany, Georgia. She is now resting safely in Heavenly Grace, reunited in a peaceful place. Daisy was preceded in death by her father, Faith Brown Jr., and her beloved brother, Nacarrius Thomas.

Daisy Ray was born on June 23, 1964, in Dawson, Georgia, to Annie Pearl Peak Rogers and Faith Brown Jr. Daisy graduated with the Terrell County High School Class of 1985 in Dawson, Georgia.

She brought her compassionate heart to the home healthcare field, where she dedicated herself to caring for others. Daisy was a woman who truly understood the value of hard work, continuous learning, and lifelong dedication. Her commitment to personal and professional growth led her to earn a Bachelor of Science degree from Troy University.

Her calling to serve others eventually led her to a fulfilling 24-year career within the state correctional system, where she spent over two decades in rehabilitation planning, mentoring individuals, and driving institutional improvements. Over the years, she served at Lee State Prison, Terrell PDC, and Macon State Prison. However, her longest tenure was at Calhoun State Prison, which marked one of the most special chapters of her professional life, spanning 15 years.

It was there that her leadership shined the brightest. Through sheer determination, dedication, and a passion for counseling, she successfully worked her way up from a Correctional Officer to Chief Counselor, demonstrating the strength, perseverance, and commitment that defined her throughout her life. To Daisy, her career was more than a job—it was a mission to provide steady guidance and leadership. She treated her colleagues like an extended family and left an enduring legacy of integrity and reliability.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories: her loving son, Antoine Ray of Dawson, Georgia; her loving and caring mother, Annie Pearl Peak Rogers. Her grandchildren were her ultimate pride and joy; she never missed an opportunity to support, encourage, and love them. She will be lovingly remembered by her six grandchildren: Demarion Jones of Leesburg, Georgia; Gabriella Ray of St. Augustine, Florida; and Antoine Ray Jr., Aaliyah Ray, Askari Jackson, and Aiden Jackson, all of Dawson, Georgia; two sisters: Lavonne (Eddie) Jackson of Dawson, Georgia, and Corenthia Brown of Connecticut; four brothers: Edward Alexander; Anthony (Toschia) Thomas; Marquavius (Kenyatta) Thomas, all of Dawson, Georgia; and Terry Brown of Connecticut; her sister-in-law Cortney Thomas of Dawson, Georgia; seven aunts: Martha Gail Peak; Lola (Eddie) Perry; Patricia Peak; and Ida (Walter) Hawkins, all of Dawson, Georgia; Shirley (James) Jones; Flossie Prince; and Loretta Peak of Shellman, Georgia. Daisy had a beautiful capacity for love that extended to Shameekia McGill, whom she cherished as a daughter; Virginia Sherman, Sherry Mathis, Bernadette Harrison, and Janice Mitchell, who shared a sisterly bond with her; Sharlene Johnson and Ashley Brown, her dear friends; and her loving companion, Ernest Jones. She also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever cherish her memory.

A Life So Beautiful

She was a daughter, cherished and dear, A mother whose love was always near.

A grandmother, gentle, loving, and true, A sister and friend who cared deeply too.

*She gave of her heart in all that she did, With kindness and love that never stayed hid.
Her laughter, her warmth, her beautiful smile, Will live in our hearts all the while.
Though she has left us, her love remains,*

In precious memories that time cannot change. In stories we share, in the tears that we cry, In the love that lives on though she said goodbye.

*She was loved beyond words, missed beyond measure, A beautiful soul, a lifelong treasure. And though we must walk this life without her, Her love will forever walk beside us. Rest peacefully, dear one, your journey is through. You gave so much love, and we treasured you. Until we meet again, may you peacefully rest— Forever remembered, forever loved,
And forever blessed.*
