His Life's Journey

Johnny Jerome Alexander was born on June 7, 1959, to the late David Countryman and Mamie Countryman. His life was one filled with love for his family, dedication to his work, and memories that will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Johnny received his education in the Terrell County School System and was a proud member of the graduating Class of 1978.

Johnny shared 23 years of marriage with his beloved late wife, Shirley Ann Alexander. Together, they blended their family and welcomed one additional child into their loving nest of three, creating a family bonded by love and treasured memories.

A dedicated and hardworking man, Johnny was employed by Tyson Foods in Dawson, Georgia, where he faithfully worked for more than 20 years. His many years of service reflected his strong work ethic, commitment, and dedication to providing for his family.

On August 28, 2026, surrounded by the love and presence of his family, Johnny peacefully departed this life at Wilson Hospice House in Albany, Georgia.

Johnny leaves to cherish his precious memories: one daughter, Kierra (Patrick) Wingfield; three sons, Corey Lowe, Otavious Lowe, and Kentrollis Lowe; three grandchildren, Serenity Davis, Saryah Davis, and Princeton Wingfield; two brothers, Douglas (Kellie) Alexander and Fredrick (Wanda) Countryman; one sister, Vontrecia (Willie) Countryman Ross; three sisters-in-law, Wanda Clay, Deborah Lowe, and Mary (Riley) Whithers; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

Johnny's life and legacy will continue to live on through his children, grandchildren, family, and all whose lives were touched by his presence. Though he is no longer with us physically, the love he shared and the memories he created will forever remain in the hearts of those who loved him.

A Letter to My Dad

Words can't express how much you meant to me or how deeply you will be missed. Thank you for being my father and for all the love you gave me throughout my life. Your presence, your words, and the memories we created together will stay with me forever. Although you are no longer here with me, your love will continue to guide me and live in my heart forever. I will cherish every memory and hold you close in my heart always.

Rest peacefully, Dad.

Love always, <sup>SEP</sup>Your daughter,
Kierra

"I love you, baby. I love you so much. Maybe we can stay in touch."
