Reflections of Life

Rev. Charlie Marcus was born on December 6, 1950, in Shellman, GA, to the late George Marcus, Sr., and Ella Mae Bailey Marcus. He was educated in the public schools of Randolph and Terrell County. He confessed and gave his life to Christ at an early age. Also at an early age, he joined Macedonia Baptist Church and later joined Jackson Grove Baptist Church.

Rev. Marcus spent quite a bit of his time working on his calling from God, oftentimes reading and studying God's Word. At a young age, he was blessed with three children: Karen, Bernard, and Jonathan Marcus.

He later met and married the love of his life, Joyce Jordan Marcus of Preston, Georgia.

He was preceded in death by his parents, the late George Marcus, Sr., and the late Ella Mae Marcus; three sisters; and six brothers.

Charlie enjoyed living life and serving God's people. His love for the Lord and God's people often had him constantly on the battlefield. He was currently the pastor of two churches: St. Matthews Missionary Baptist Church (Dawson, GA) and New Point Missionary Baptist Church (Arlington, GA). He was also a former Dawson Police officer.

Charlie's skill and expertise had him working a variety of jobs in and around SW Georgia. He spent the last 12 years working at Johnson and Son Funeral Service, living out one of his favorite scriptures, Psalm 34:18: "The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit," where he would often comfort and pray for those families who were grieving.

Charlie quietly slipped into the Father's arms on Sunday morning, September 27, 2026. He leaves behind a legacy of love with his beloved wife, Joyce Marcus; his children: Karen Marcus of Americus, Georgia; Charles Marcus of Parrott, Georgia; and Jonathan Marcus of Atlanta, GA; three grandchildren: Charsia A. Marcus, Kenquansia A. Marcus, and Quintavious Johnson; and four great-grandchildren: Na'Kayvion Thomas, Gage McFadden, AnRaya Johnson, and Quincy Johnson; special grandchildren: KaMiya, Braxten, Landon, Tylah, Kim, Brandon, Quennel, Daphane, Raymond, and Aaliyah; three sisters: Rushie Henry of Jacksonville, FL, Diane Wright of Jacksonville, FL, and Dorothy Edwards of St. Petersburg, FL; two brothers: Robert Marcus of Dawson, GA, and John Marcus (Mary) of Jacksonville, FL; three sisters-in-law: Beryl Maxine Jordan and Eunice Marie Jordan, both of Preston, GA, and Mary Marcus of Dawson, GA; two brothers-in-law: James Jordan of Richland, GA, and Walter Jordan of Jacksonville, FL; a host of nieces and nephews who loved him dearly; several brothers of the cloth; and special lifelong friends Pastor Henry Hogan and Pastor Rodney Duncan.

Special thanks to Phoebe Hospice of Albany, GA (Natalie & Whitney), Commissioner Ernest Johnson and the staff of Johnson & Son Funeral Home, and to his two longtime friends Essie Bradley and Lula Dinkins.

RECESSIONAL

A faithful servant, kind and true, who served with love in all he'd do. With gentle hands and caring heart, He gave his best and did his part. At Johnson & Son, his presence shined, With dignity, compassion, and a heart so kind. Though Pastor Marcus has answered God's call, His life and service will be remembered by all. Servant of God, well done. Rest from your labor; your victory is won
