Reflections of Life

Minister Pecola E. Lee departed this life on October 9, 2026, at her residence. She was born on December 27, 1931, to the late Lewis Ervin and Leola Walker.

She was united in marriage to the late Martie Lee Sr., and to this union, five loving children were born, of which three preceded her in death: James B. Lee, Martie Lee Jr., and Cathy A. McCoy. Her grandson Dominic Walden also preceded her in death. She accepted Christ as her savior at an early age and later joined Jesus Name Church under the leadership of Mother Martha V. Goodwin and Elder Eddie Daniels for many years where she served as church secretary/treasurer.

She was a devoted member of Refuge Temple Apostolic Church under the leadership of Pastor Lula Brown, where she continued to serve God in the role of secretary/treasurer. Minister Pecola Lee was a woman of faith, love, and strength. She lived a long, meaningful life devoted to God. She was a devoted woman of God who found comfort, peace, and strength through her faith.

Minister Lee touched the lives and hearts of everyone she encountered over the years. She opened her home and witnessed to all who would listen. Spreading the gospel through missionary work has brought many to Christ over the years. She served as secretary/treasurer until her health failed. She enjoyed attending church, worshipping the Lord, and fellowshiping with her fellow saints. Her faith was an important part of her life, and she carried her beliefs with her through life's joys and challenges. She understood the importance of prayer, family, and treating others with kindness.

Although we mourn her passing, we are grateful for the many years we were blessed to have her with us. We find comfort in knowing that she lived a life of faith and that the love she gave will continue through the generations of her family. Her life was a blessing, her memory a treasure, and her love will never be forgotten. She will be deeply missed but forever cherished.

She attended Albany Area Technical College and received a certification in Nursing Aid. She devoted many years at Edison Nursing Home. She spent several years at Amy's Industries. In the latter years of her life, she devoted her time as a Home Health Care Aid.

Pecola leaves to cherish her memories two children: Barbara Lee of Albany and Larry (Stacy) Lee of McDonough, Georgia; one bonus daughter, Lequeshia (Anthony) Mincey, of Edison, Georgia; one sister/bonus daughter, Edna (Bishop LB) Ingram, of Edison, Georgia; LaQuana Lee, of Columbia, South Carolina; James McCoy, of Albany, Georgia; Chardae Alexander, of Douglasville, Georgia; Lindsey Lee, of Goodlettsville, Tennessee; Daija Lee, of McDonough, Georgia; Danika Lee, of McDonough, Georgia; two bonus grandchildren, Shakia (Xavier) Charles, of Douglasville, Georgia, and Antaneshia Mincey, of Edison, Georgia; nine great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren. A host of nieces, nephews, and cousins. A devoted pastor and friend, Pastor Lula Mae Brown.

Forever in Your Hearts ♥

Though I am gone, I'm never far, I live in each of you, just as you are. In every memory, in all you do, my love remains, forever with you. When you miss me, look to the sky, feel my love as the days go by. Our family bond will never part, For I live forever in each of your hearts. ♥♥

Acts 2:37-38

³⁷ Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

³⁸ Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.
