Clergy/Family

It's we who feel the burden of
Our sadness and our grief
We have to cry, to mourn our loss,
Before we get relief

We know we'll reconnect with her

At the end of each life's road

We'll see her cherished face again

When we release our earthly load

If Roses grow in Heaven

Lord, please pick a bunch for me.

Place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they're from me.

Tell her that I love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy,

I do it every day,

but there's an ache within my heart

that will never go away.
