

Dear Daddy,

Thank you for your leadership and guidance.

Thank you for your wise words.

Thank you for listening.

Thank you for your love and encouragement.

Most of all, thank you for showing me what it was to have a great father.

Love, Your Daughter, Bridgett

Dear Tang,

You were a great father, friend, and mentor.

Also, disciplinarian.

I will miss you very much.

You will always have a place in my heart.

Love, Your Son, Reginald

My Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up

Just say I gave in.

Don't say I lost the battle

For it was God's war to lose or win

Please don't say how good I was

But that I did my best.

Just say I tried to do what's right

To give the most I could, not less.

Please don't give me wings or halos.

That's for God to do.

I want no more than I deserve

No extras, just my due.

But I have one request

Thank God, for I've been blessed.

"Tang"

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Woodroe "Tang" Lane would like to thank everyone for their kind expressions. Your phone calls, visits, flowers, thoughts, and prayers have all helped greatly during our time of bereavement. May God continue to bless each of you, is our prayer.

Obituary

Woodroe "Tang" Lane was born on January 19, 1959, to the late Anna C. Lane and Atward Hayden in Hardaway, Alabama. Woodroe was the seventh child of thirteen. He was preceded in death by his brother, Award H. Lane, Jr.

Woodroe received his education at Prairie Farms Elementary and D. C. Wolfe High School in Shorter, Alabama.

After graduating in 1977, he attended Selma University in Selma, Alabama. After graduating from Selma University, he returned home and began working for the Macon-Russell Community Action for twenty years or more.

He also worked for Tuskegee University in the Food Service Division and Calhoun Foods in Tuskegee, Alabama.

Tang always kept a job because he loved having his own money. Tang would always meet and greet you with a smile. He was full of life, even after his health began to fail him, that didn't stop him from enjoying life.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Patricia W. Lane of Opelika, AL; one daughter, Bridgett Washington of Montgomery, AL; one son, Reginald Washington of Montgomery, AL; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren; five brothers, Willie Minnifield, Ulysees (Bernice) Lane, Leon (Michelle) Lane, all of Tuskegee, AL, Robert (Shelly) Lane of Tallassee, AL, and Richard (Palestine) Lane of Montgomery, AL; six sisters, Anna (Aden) Thompson, Ada (Alfonza) Waver, Beatrice Thompson, Queen Lane, and Ruby (Johnny) Johnson, all of Tuskegee, AL, and Ernestine Lane of Jacksonville, NC; special cousins, Atward O'neal and Beatrice Moore; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Our Brother

Our brother lives with us in memory
Before our eyes he grew weaker and weaker everyday
Doing all we could to save him
Until God took him away
Never shall his memory fade
Our sweetest love lingers
Forever found his peaceful grave.
