Obituary

We joyfully celebrate the life of Priscilla Stokes Broughton, 64, from Hampton, Virginia, previously of Richmond, who peacefully transitioned on March 17, 2024.

Priscilla, a devoted mother and admired educator, leaves behind a legacy of love, learning, and cherished memories. Her radiant smile, unwavering strength, and infectious laugh touched many lives throughout her time with us.

Priscilla was born to Edward Stokes and Pauline L. Stokes on February 24, 1960 in Richmond, Virginia. Priscilla completed her education with distinction, graduating from John F. Kennedy High School in 1978 and later receiving her bachelor's degree from Hampton University (formerly known as) Hampton Institute in 1983. Her passion for knowledge and her desire to empower others led her to a fulfilling career in teaching with Newport News Public Schools, where she inspired countless students before her retirement in 2011.

An aficionada of fashion and cooking, she had a particular fondness for animal prints, which were a reflection of her vibrant spirit. Her talent for interior design showcased not only her creativity but also her ability to turn her house into a welcoming home for many. Photography was one of her greatest and favorite hobbies, allowing her to capture the ephemeral moments of life with permanence.

Priscilla's greatest love was for her children and grandchildren. With her former spouse Herbert, she shared the joy of raising two sons, Trevar, and Herbert Kamaren. Trevar Broughton (Kirbie) and Herbert Broughton (Sheena), along with her daughter Tami Gause, were the light of her life. Her cherished grandchildren, Peighton, Baileigh, Drue, Phoenix, Sevyn Athena Broughton, Melodie, and Josiah Jackson, brought immense joy and love into her world.

Her love extended to her siblings William Stokes, Vincent Battle, Clementine Benjamin, and Pamela Gayles-Nelson, as well as her cherished nieces, nephews, godchildren, and a multitude of cousins and friends who will miss her deeply.

She was preceded in death by her sister, Sandra and brother, Ricky; maternal grandmother, Pauline Lucille Plummer; grandfather, Robert Branch Plummer Sr.; mother, Pauline Stokes; father, Edward Stokes; aunts, Rachel Viola Wood and Florine Harris; uncles, Robert Branch Plummer, Jr. (Bubba), Charles Plummer, Joseph Benjamin Plummer (Joe Benny), and Herbert Ralph Plummer, Sr.

Instead of flowers, the family kindly requests donations in Priscilla's honor to a charity supporting education and the arts, causes she deeply cherished.

We honor the memory of this extraordinary woman and rejoice in the profound influence she had on our lives. May she rest in eternal peace.
