

The Is Not Gone

*Ease your grief, she is not gone,
For in your heart, she lingers on.
Her smile, her laugh, her special way,
Will comfort you, from day to day.
You'll feel her presence in the breeze,
That dances gently, through the trees.
And it's her face that you shall see,
When you're in need of company.
At any time, you can recall,
The love you shared...you saved it all.
And in time, more than anything,
You'll find peace in remembering.*

Obituary

GLADYS WALKER transitioned to eternal rest, September 9, 2025, at her home. Gladys was born on April 17, 1939, in Madison, Georgia, to the late Eugene “Bill” Walker and Elnora Wright Walker.

She was preceded in death by her two brothers, Deacon Freddie Walker and Gussie Walker; a daughter-in-law, Geraldine Walker; and two brothers-in-law, Deacon Claude Hunter and Deacon Bennie Williams, Sr.

Gladys was educated in the Smyrna Church School and Burney High school system. She joined the Smyrna Baptist Church at an early age, where she served as church clerk, sang in the Senior Choir, and was director of the Sunbeam Choir. Gladys was a faithful and active member. She loved the Smyrna Baptist Church and family.

When she was not working, you could find her in the flower garden, sewing, or decorating.

Gladys was employed by Monroe Poultry Plant, Holiday Inn, Sweet-Or, Davis Brothers, WoodKraft, and Bonners.

Gladys leaves to treasure her memories: her two children, Rodney and Beverly Walker; goddaughter, Daisy Benford; three sisters, Mary Hunter, Ella Charleston, and Frances Williams; two grandchildren, Darrell and Evette Walker; seven great-grandchildren, Darriez, Jykell, Dajah, Samadre, Quan, Olicia, and Rha’zi Walker; two great-great-grandchildren; and nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and the Smyrna Church Family.

She was a godmother to many of the neighborhood children. Her long-time neighbors, Edith Wright and Phyllis Williams, Mary Peters, and Johnnie Nell Ross.
