"God's Got Me!"

Our lives go on without you

But nothing is the same .

We have to hide our heartache

When someone speaks your name .

Sad are the hearts that love you;

Silent are the tears that fall.

Living without you is the hardest part of all.

You did so many things for us.

Your heart was so kind and true,

And when we needed someone

We could always count on you.

The special years will not return

When we are all together,

But with the love in our hearts,

You walk with us forever.

Life of Anna Brown

MISS ANNA BROWN, a beloved woman of God and cherished member of the Eatonton community, passed away peacefully, leaving behind a legacy of love, faith, and dedication. Born on December 21, 1953, Anna was the daughter of the late George Brown and Nona Mae Parks.

Anna attended Butler Baker Grammar School and dedicated much of her life to serving others. A loyal member of the Greater Bell Baptist Church of Eatonton, Georgia, she gave her life fully to God in 2014 and remained a faithful servant throughout her life.

Her professional career included devoted years at Eatonton Health Rehabilitation and Highlight, among other roles, where she touched many lives with her kindness and work ethic.

Anna's passions extended beyond her work; she loved fishing and nurturing her beautiful flower garden. She was a wonderful mother, an excellent grandmother, a great sister, auntie, and godmother to many children in the community. Always ready to help, Anna had a heart of gold, and to know her was to love her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, George Brown and Nona Mae Parks, and her brother, George Parks Sr.

Anna Brown leaves to cherish her memory her children: Elanda (Van) Brown, William (Althea) Brown, and Shirley (Pastor Roger, Sr.) Reid; her brothers: Charles (Shun) Brown, Tommy Lee (Louise) Brown, and Willie Brown; her grandchildren: Felicia (Gavin) Caine, Quintarius Brown, Chrquita Brown, Elanda S. Brown, Vontae Brown, Richelle Brown, Ronquisha Farley, Standish (Christopher) Hall, William Brown, Eliha Harvey, Micheal Brown, Ke'Miya Brown, Jaleisha Williams, T'hea Brown, and Aleyah Blue; her godsons: Gary (Tonya) Waller, Lonnie Welch, and Donnell Pennamon; along with a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends who will forever hold her in their hearts.

Miss Anna was a wonderful mother and an excellent grandmother, a great sister, auntie, and godmother to so many children. She was also there whenever you needed her, no matter what it was for, Miss Anna truly had a heart of gold. To know Dorothy Mae was to love her. She will truly be missed. Woman of God, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister auntie, godmother, friend and the family one call that's all.

Take your rest Mom we love you!
