Life Story

Janette Bullard was born on July 26, 1955, in Milledgeville, Georgia, to the late Annie Louise Williams and Robert Lewis Williams, Sr. From the beginning, she was known for her gentle spirit, compassionate heart, and deep love for others.

She graduated from Baldwin High School in 1973 and continued her education at Georgia College, where she earned a bachelor's degree in Sociology in 1975. Guided by her caring nature and desire to help those in need, Janette dedicated her life and career to service through various nonprofit organizations. She worked faithfully for Director Distributing Associates for 30 years before transitioning to Partnership for Community Action in Decatur, Georgia, where she began as an analyst and later served as a supervisor. Her commitment to community service continued through her role as a site supervisor at Naji Foundation, Inc.

On May 27, 1977, Janette was united in marriage to Willie Ben Bullard, Sr., in Eatonton, Georgia. From their loving union, two children were born, Latasha Makecia Bullard and Willie Ben Bullard, Jr. Janette cherished her family deeply and found great joy in being a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her beloved husband, Willie Ben Bullard, Sr.; children, Latasha Makecia Bullard and Willie Ben Bullard, Jr.; grandchildren, Nikeyah Rache' Bell, Quadeja Breche' Timmons, Korian Deshon Perkins, Cassidy Janae Bullard, and Amora Le' Bullard; great-grandchildren, Malyasia Ny're Hardeman and Honor De'Lance Royster; and devoted sisters and brothers.

Janette Bullard will be remembered for her kindness, strength, and unwavering dedication to her family and community. Her legacy of love and service will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

She also left behind a lot of dear friends including Clara Davis, Rosa Jones, Yolanda "Yvette" Dawson, Minnie Lomax, Mary McCoy, Linda, and Sharon.

Precious Memories

In Loving Memory
OF OUR
Wonderful Grandmother

*Of all the special gifts in life
However great or small,
To have you as our grandmother
Was the greatest gift of all.
May the winds of love blow softly
And whisper in your ear,
“We love and miss you, Grandmother,
And wish that you were here.”
Deep in our hearts, your life is kept
To love and cherish, not forget.
No more tomorrows we can share
But yesterdays are always there.
A silent thought, a secret tear
Keeps your memory ever near
In our hearts forever.*

Postlude

To My Wife

When I first saw you at the sunset, it was love at first sight and we've been together ever since.
We went to Orlando, Florida, together and experienced a first and went to Disney together.
I had more fun, past my imagination, I had never been out of the state of Georgia.
I remember going to get on this ride called, "It's a Small World," and it was just you and I.

I miss you so much... you getting on me about worrying you about how you feel.
I'm sorry if I got on you, but it was out of love.
I'm going to truly miss you from the bottom of my heart.

You were my friend, my mentor, and my confidant.
If you were here today, you would know how I feel,
and I would tell you again that I love you more than I ever.
You took care of me through the ups and downs; you stayed with me
through the rain, the sun, and the sunshine.
This is how I feel about you... to this day... you were my sunshine!

The love we had brought children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.
That will take me the rest of my life we had a wonderful... wonderful marriage!
Rest in peace, my love... mama.

With Love, B

Who Am I?

I am a daughter
I am a college graduate
I am a wife
I am a mother
I am a auntie to many
I am a grandmother
I am a pandora box
I am a gambler (the one-arm bandit)
I am a shoulder when needed
I am a hard worker
I am a best friend to so many
I am a firm woman and my words have meaning
I am a dreamer who wanted better for children
I am a listener
I am the backbone when others are scared
I am everything that they think I am and more

Who am I?
