

My Darling Carolyn ("T-Ninety")

How do I begin to say what my heart is feeling today?
It aches with a pain so deep,
a love I will forever keep.

At times you could not see it then,
but in time you came around again.
You turned my world upside down,
my greatest love, my solid ground.

With tear-filled eyes, I cry for you,
my love so faithful, pure, and true.
I picture you within my mind,
a heart so warm, a soul so kind.

You never had the chance to say goodbye,
so my heart weeps silent cries.
Though you are no longer here to see,
you live forever inside of me.

Forever loved and dearly missed,
Your loving husband,

James

Tribute

She carried many names through life,
a mother, sister, aunt, and wife,
a grandmother whose love ran deep,
in memories we will always keep.
She shaped our days in quiet ways,
with steady care and gentle grace,
a constant light, a guiding hand,
the heart of family, firm and kind.
Though now we face this sad goodbye,
her love remains, it does not die—
it lives in us, in all we do,
and in the love we learned from you.

T-90'S LIFE STORY

Carolyn Elaine Waller of Eatonton, Georgia, peacefully departed this earthly life on Tuesday, December 30, 2025, at her home, surrounded by her loving family, after a lengthy illness.

Carolyn Elaine Waller was born April 10, 1952, in Eatonton, Georgia. She attended Butler-Baker School, where she graduated in 1970. She was a woman of quiet strength, deep love, and unwavering devotion to her family. Throughout her life, she touched the hearts of many through her kindness, generosity, and compassionate spirit.

Carolyn found great joy in sewing and spending quality time with her family, whom she cherished deeply. She attended Ebenezer Baptist Church where she became a devoted member as a teenager, where her faith remained an important part of her life.

She began her working career at Eatonton Manufacturing Company, where she was employed for numerous years until the company closed. She continued her sewing career in Monticello, Georgia, working for another sewing company for several years until its closure. Carolyn then became employed at Perky Caps and worked faithfully until that business closed.

In 2004 Carolyn began her career with the Putnam County Sheriff's Office as a detention officer (jailer). She remained a dedicated employee until she retired in 2020.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her parents, Harvey and Annie Lou West, her beloved daughter, Ratonia Wykeesee Boswell, her brother, Marvin (Juke) West, and her two grandchildren, Ja'Juan Mar'Kavious Waller and Ja'Meliah Ma'Kenzie Waller.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories her husband, James Ike Waller Jr., her son James Ike (Bronwyn) Waller III, her beloved grandchildren, Robert M. Boswell, Te'Nyia J. Boswell, Jaquez Waller and Brianna Griffin; her three sisters Mary Booker, Elizabeth (Samuel) Crawford, Edith (Dwayne) Mathis all of Eatonton, Georgia; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives including 4 great grandchildren and dear friends who will forever hold her in their hearts. She is lovingly remembered by her in-laws; Janie Williams; George Waller; Klara (James) Barfield; Roosevelt (Dorothy) Taylor; Mary Standifer; Cindy Standifer; Jimmy (Christine) Waller; Samantha (Sylvester) McMullen and a devoted sister in-law Lindy Spencer.

Carolyn will be remembered for her warm smile, and caring nature, and the love she so freely gave to all who knew her.
