

THE DAY God TOOK YOU HOME

*You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Goodbye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times, I needed you;
A million times, I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.*

OBITUARY

Frances L. Cole was called home on January 26, 2026. She was born on November 30, 1956, in Eatonton, Georgia, to parents, late Sam Cole, Jr., and Margaret C. Cole.

Frances attended Putnam County High School and graduated in 1974.

She was blessed with one child: Torrance Dontrez Cole. Frances began her career at Enterprise Aluminum before pursuing her passion for education. She dedicated over 30 years of service to Putnam County Middle School. Frances was a faithful member to the Greater High Hope Christian Center, where she was head of the usher board ministry, dietary, and cleaning committee. She was a cherished coworker and a friend to all who knew her.

She was preceded in death by her six sisters, Brenda Cole Hudson, Helen Cole, Irene Cole, Margaret Marie Cole, Virginia Cole Ingram, and Maxine Cole; three brothers, Herman Cole, Raymond Cole, and Glenwood Cole; and two stepbrothers, Steve Jewell and John Bailey, along with her stepsister, Betty Paschel.

Frances leaves to cherish her memory: one son, Torrance Dontrez Cole; 11 grandchildren among those Reilyus, Torrance, and devoted niece, Syreeka White; 15 great-grandchildren; one sister, Barbara Evans; stepsister, Tracy Jewell Bishop; three stepbrothers, Ernest Bailey, Robert Jewell, and Eric Jewell; a host of nieces, nephews, and other loving family members.

Frances kindness, dedication, and love will forever live in the hearts of those she touched.
