MY JOURNEY

*Life is but a stopping place
A pause in what's to be
A resting place along the road
To sweet eternity
We all have different journeys
Different paths along the way
We all were meant to learn some things
But never meant to stay
Our destination is a place
Far greater than we know,
For some, the journey's quicker
For some the journey's slow
And when the journey finally ends
We'll claim a great reward,
And find and everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord*

Obituary

Mr. Patrick Sharome Davis, Jr., affectionately known to family and friends as “PJ”, was born on February 11, 1995, in Milledgeville, Georgia to his loving parents, Patrick Sharome Davis, Sr. and Shirlon Willis Mathis. On Wednesday, May 13, 2026, PJ transitioned from his earthly home to eternal rest.

At an early age, PJ accepted Christ and became a member of Faith of Jesus Ministries in Covington.

PJ was a proud graduate of Newton High School, Class of 2013, where he formed lifelong friendships and countless memories that remained close to this heart throughout his life.

A talented cook with a love for food, PJ worked alongside his family at Southern Delight Cafeteria, where his warm personality and genuine spirit allowed him to build meaningful relationships with customers through his welcoming nature and kind heart.

PJ’s talents extended far beyond the kitchen. He had a deep appreciation for fashion and proudly launched his own clothing line, Nifty Grand, where he was able to express his individuality, vision, and unique sense of style.

Family meant everything to PJ, but nothing brought him greater happiness than being a father to his beloved daughter, Juri. She was truly the center of his world, and he cherished every moment spent with her. PJ was a loving, hands-on, and devoted father who took great pride in caring for and protecting his daughter. Whether through his guidance, affection, humor, or unwavering support, he made sure Juri always felt deeply loved. The bond they shared meant everything to him.

PJ had a nurturing spirit, a protective heart, and a natural ability to bring comfort and joy to those around him. His love for his daughter was undeniable and reflected in everything he did. He also had a deep love for animals and enjoyed caring for them.

He was preceded in death by his stepfather, Michael Mathis.

PJ leaves to cherish his precious memories a devoted circle of family and friends who will forever hold him close in their hearts:

his loving and supportive parents, Patrick (Jennifer) Davis, Sr. and Shirlon Willis Mathis; his greatest blessing and pride and joy, his daughter, Juri Davis, and her mother, Joy Drummond; four loving sisters, Kenmeannah Davis, Makayla Mathis, Sakura McLaughlin, and Miracle Blue; three devoted brothers, Marquail Farley, Cobias Willis, and Tyrique Mathis.

He also leaves behind his two beloved nieces, Janiya Willis and Jaia Hall; one loving nephew, Jaymin Hall; his dear aunt, Brittany Washington; and seven caring uncles, Eric Davis, Kendrick Eubanks, Trent Eubanks, Derrick Waller, Eldridge (Valisa) Waller, Marquis Waller, and Jean Pierre Washington.

Also mourning his passing are his maternal grandparents, Clarence Washington and Linda Willis; and his paternal grandparents, John Eubanks and Pinkie Adams. His grandmothers held a special place in his life and were instrumental in helping raise him, surrounding him with love, wisdom, and unwavering support throughout his journey. Special Aunts, Josephine Davis and Wyvonia Reese.

Though PJ has departed this earthly life and is no longer with us, his nurturing spirit, kind heart, unforgettable presence, and the memories he created will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

“The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.” – Psalm 18:2

*My Dad means the most to me.
And he will forever be in our hearts and in our souls and in the shadow we stand in.*

-Love, Juri
