This is Not Goodbye

I did not want to leave you

It was just my time to go

I know your heart is breaking

So I need to let you know

That although you can no longer see me

I'll be forever by your side

I promise time will numb the pain

And help dry the tears you cried

You can reach me in you memories

Just think of me, I will be there

In your dreams, we can visit yesteryear

Where we didn't have a care

Please carry on and live your life

I beg you try

Just know we'll meet again one day

As this is not Goodbye

H.E.W.'s Life Story

A TIME TO BE BORN

Harry Eugene Walton was born on February 23, 1951, to parents: Reverend Charlie L. Walton Sr. and Mary L. Walton. Harry was the youngest of twelve siblings. He departed this life peacefully at Kaiser Permanente Urgent Care Center in Morrow, Georgia, on July 4, 2026.

A TIME TO LEARN

Harry gave his life to Jesus at an early age and united with Jefferson Baptist Church, Eatonton, Georgia. Harry attended and graduated from Butler Baker School in 1969. After graduating from high school, he worked at the Enterprise Aluminum Plant. Desiring to leave Eatonton, he moved to Atlanta, Georgia.

Upon arriving in Atlanta, he was employed at Scripto Pen Company until it closed. He would later be employed at Warren Refrigeration Company, Gigi's Pizza, Winn Dixie, Georgia Pacific, and Sherwin Williams Paint Company.

A TIME TO LOVE

On May 27, 1972, Harry married the love of his life. Mrs. Doris Pressley. Their loving union was blessed with two children, Shaun Cornell Walton and Kimberly Danielle Walton. Harry enjoyed music, dancing, cooking, and barbering. Because of his love for music and dancing, he was called "H.E.W the Jive master"

A TIME TO REST

Harry leaves to cherish his memory: His wife of 54 years Doris Presley Walton; two children, Shaun Cornell Walton and Kimberly Danielle Walton; five grandchildren, Santana Walton, Kionna Jones, Janas Welch, Mashaunti Billingsley and Shannon Walton; one brother, Ralph Walton of Eatonton, Georgia; three brothers-in-law, John (Vera) Presley, of Lithonia, Georgia, Edmond (Petronia) Presley of Ellenwood, Georgia, and Charlie (Rosia) Presley of Decatur, Georgia, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents: Reverend Charlie L. Walton, Sr., and Mary L. Walton; five brothers: Charlie L. Walton, Jr, Alex Walton, Larry Walton, Willie James Walton, and Ernest Lee Walton; five sisters: Eva Julia McCloud, Dorothy Hill, Dennie Walton, Sallie Mae Walton, and Marie Griffin.

Cherished Memories

Until We Meet Again

I never dreamed I'd have to walk this road without you by my side,
For fifty-four precious years,
my heart found joy in being your bride.
From our humble beginnings in Eatonton to a new life in Atlanta's embrace, You held my hand with unwavering love through every season we faced.
When I left to pursue my education, you believed in all I could be,
And together we built a beautiful family rooted in faith and harmony.
Our two children became our greatest blessing, and our grandchildren our delight,
A living testament to the love we nurtured with all our might.
I will forever miss your laughter,
your dancing, your music,
and the meals you'd prepare with care,
The warmth of your gentle smile and the way you filled our home with love everywhere.
Though my heart aches with every beat,
I thank God for the life we shared,
For every sacrifice you made and every moment that showed how deeply you cared.
Until the Lord calls me home,
I'll cherish each memory we've made,
Holding you close within my heart, where time can never make them fade.
Sleep peacefully, my beloved Harry, until Heaven reunites us once more Until we meet again, my love,
I'll love you forevermore.
