Devoted Father • Hardworking Man • Faithful Servant •
• Beloved Member of the Morgan County community •

Robert Lee (FROG) Carter was born June 24, 1934, to the late John H. and Minnie Inman Carter. He attended Pearl High School in Madison Georgia. He joined Holland Spring Baptist church early in life. His faith was an important part of his life. He faithfully attended Plainview Baptist Church and remained connected to his church family. Robert believed in hard work. Early in life and into adulthood he worked for the Tamplin farm where he used his skills, knowledge, and God-given talents in farming, dairy and landscaping to provide for his family.

Years later he began working in the Morgan County School System, 1990 - 2022. He was originally assigned to Morgan Middle School and later served many years at the Primary School. He became more than just an employee. He was a familiar and trusted face, loved and respected by administrators, faculty, staff and students. His kindness, gentle spirit, willingness to help and genuine concern for others made a lasting impression on everyone who knew him.

Family was at the center of Robert's life. He proudly supported all his children during high school and college in their sports, activities, and band. But his love for young people did not end when his own children graduated. Long afterward, he attended basketball games faithfully showing up to support the students of his community. For more than 50 years he became a legendary and recognizable face of Morgan County High School sports. To many athletes, Robert was a source of encouragement, kindness, and generosity. He purchased food for young people who needed it and provided them with a safe ride home. His acts of kindness were not done for recognition. He simply saw a need and did what he could to help. His life demonstrated that sometimes the greatest impact a person can have is simply by being there- showing up, lending a helping hand, offering encouragement, and caring about others. He was a true friend, supporter, encourager, and servant to generations of students, families, educators, athletes and community members.

Robert leaves behind a legacy that cannot be measured simply by the number of years he lived or jobs he held. His legacy lives in his work, his family he provided for, the schools where he diligently served, the countless games he attended, the young people he encouraged, the meals he purchased and the many lives he touched through simple acts of kindness. For more than five decades, Morgan County watched Robert Lee (FROG) show up not because he had to, but because he cared.

His father John Henry Carter and mother Minnie L. Carter, brothers James, Elie and Horace Carter proceeded him in death.

He is survived by his children: Carnell Porter (Madison, GA), Varnell Porter (Terrell), (Savannah, GA), Gregory Porter (Tacoma WA), Melvin Carter (Elizabeth) (Orlanda, FL), and Dr. Norman Carter (Dr. Caroline) (Montezuma, GA); two sisters: Addie L. Johnson and Bertha M. Carter (Madison GA); loving granddaughters: Makayla and Vindhya Carter (Atlanta, GA), and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and many, many friends.

Cherished Memories

His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. - Matthew 25:21

A Man Named Frog

There was a man named Frog,
and Morgan County knew his name,
Not because he sought the spotlight,
but because he always came.
For decades through our schoolhouse doors,
he served with heart and pride,
And when our children
took the court,
you knew Frog was somewhere inside.
He fed the hungry,
gave rides home,
and helped without applause,
Because serving others
wasn't his job
it simply was his cause.
From his own children
to generations
he watched grow
and succeed,
Frog taught us that a faithful heart
will always see a need.
For over fifty years,
through wins and losses,
Frog was there,
A constant face, a helping hand,
a man who truly cared.
So when Morgan County gathers
and we notice his empty chair, Remember: legends never really leave their love is still everywhere.
