Epitaph

When I die
Give what's left of me away
To children
And old men that wait to die
And if you need to cry,
Cry for your brother
Walking the street beside you.
And when you need me,
Put your arms
Around anyone
And give them
What you need to give to me.
I want to leave you something,
Something better
Than words
Or sounds
Look for me
In the people I've known
Or loved,
And if you cannot give me away,
At least let me live on in your eyes
And not your mind.
You can love me most
By letting
Hands touch hands,
By letting bodies touch bodies,
And by letting go
Of children
That need to be free.
Love doesn't die,
People do.
So, when. All that's left of me
Is love,
Give me away.
I'll see you at home
In the earth.

Obituary

James Roy Cunningham (Fuzzy), of Greensboro North Carolina, passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, July 14, 2024. He is the son of Tommie Cunningham, Sr. & Eunice Groves Cunningham of Anderson South Carolina. James attended Guilford County Public Schools and later served in Korea as a paratrooper for the United States Army. Since his retirement from working as an Environmental Services technician, James spent much of his time caring for his wife. You could often find him watching wrestling, westerns, law and order, and his beloved UNC Tarheels and Dallas Cowboys in front of the television. Fuzzy was a devoted father and grandfather and often found himself raising children that were not his own. James was preceded by his parents, his brother Tommy Cunningham & his sisters Mae Eunice Mckoy & Denise Daves. James is survived by his wife of 26 years, Hattie Potat Cunningham, one son James Spinks (Stacy) of Arizona, a daughter, Jenee Donell Darden (Terrell) of Greensboro, a stepdaughter Jessica Jordan (Christopher), three brothers Albert Lee Cunningham(Greensboro), John Lewis Cunningham(Pennsylvania), Cornell 'Ricky' Cunningham(High Point); two sisters Cornelia Montague & Vanessa Ratliffe both of Greensboro, 9 Grandchildren, 6 Great-Grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.
