When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

LIFE REFLECTIONS

HAROLD Alan SWAIN

HAROLD ALAN SWAIN was born on September 03, 1953, in Jacksonville, Florida, to the late Johnnie and Roxie Mae Swain. He attended Duval County public schools.

He was referred to as "Diamond Harold" for his love of diamond jewelry.

"Botley" as he was affectionately called by several family members and friends, was an avid fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers Football Team. One day he was introduced to Jesus and became more than a fan but a loyal member of His team. He never stopped being a Steeler's fan, but his life in the kingdom took priority. Harold was happy and proud to be a part of a team that is always victorious, and he wanted everyone on the corner and everywhere to know Jesus and receive salvation.

In 1988 Harold joined Philipian Community Church where he was a faithful member and loved his church. For years he gave diligent service to the PCC Usher Board until his health began to fail. He supported and encouraged his wife in ministry and served as her "official driver," sharing wisdom and giving sound advice to youth that attended her workshops and activities. He was also concerned and ministered to young people on the street.

Harold met his loving, dedicated wife of 33 years, Ellafair Jones-Swain in November 1988 and was married February 4, 1989. Through this union he became the father to two daughters and in time Grandpa to four granddaughters and one grandson. They love him so dearly. His granddaughter Brooke fondly insisted on calling him "Grandpa" even after being told several times to call him Botley.

Over the years he worked as a driver for the following companies: Cunningham Furniture, Lumber Unlimited, and Paramount Poultry. At Quantem Aviation he worked in security.

He was preceded in death by his parents: Johnnie and Roxie Mae Swain; sister: Barbara Ann Swain-Hicks; brothers: Tommie Lee Swain and Dwight A. Swain Sr.

Harold "Botley" Swain leaves a legacy of love to cherish his memories, loving wife: Ellafair Jones-Swain; children: Apostle Tiffany D. Alexander (Bishop Stanley), Tara M. Hester-McDaniel; brothers: Johnnie James Swain (Linda), Billie Eugene Swain (Noel); grandchildren: Daitia Brinson, Ashley Williams (Brian), Brooke Clayton, Anthony McDaniel, Jordan Clayton; great-grands: Melanie, Skylar, Karson and Riley; beloved aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, devoted in-laws and friends.
