

THE JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN

Don't think of me as gone away
My journey's just begun
Life holds so many facets
This earth is but one
Just think of me as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years
Think of how I must be wishing
That you could know today
How nothing but your sadness
Can really go away
And think of me as living
In the hearts of those I touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And I know I was loved so much.

RODERICK
Baker

RODERICK BAKER was born on June 7, 1969, in Jacksonville, Florida to Johnnie Rogers, Jr and Deborah Baker.

He attended Duval County Public Schools.

Roderick was a fun and loving person. He loved to dance (his favorite dance was the whooping). He loved playing the drums and football.

He would always say he loved everyone before leaving no matter the circumstance(s). He loved fighting putting people down...lol that was a hobby, but he truly loved his kids.

Roderick was preceded in death by his brother, David Baker, his favorite uncle, Thomas Greene.

He is survived by his 5 children, Roderick L. Baker, Jr., Jaroderick L. Baker, Roderick A. Baker, his only daughter, Roderickia L. Baker, and Antwane R. Baker; father, Johnnie Rogers, Jr.; mother, Deborah Baker; grandchildren; sisters, Helen Baker, Helena Baker, Selena Baker (Brian Martin); brothers, David Hamilton, Sr (Linda), Andre Rogers, Sr. (Sharell), Christopher Rogers (Willette), Jonnie Rogers (Tina), Timothy Rogers (Liler) and Jonathan Hamilton; grandmother, Helen Kelly; a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, his beloved friend, Antoinette Nelson; his favorite funny niece Shanteia Baker, cousins and many sorrowing friends.
