

LAST RIDE

From the cradle to the grave what we use to say
No stress no pain when we use to play
You got me forever what you always say
But I ain't never picture this day
I wanted you forever guess GOD couldn't wait
Gimme a call later today
Let's laugh, joke and play
You can finally see grandma face
She gone wipe your tears off yo face and tell you everything gone be ok
Even though my heart gone ache
Imma make sho moms and pops gone be straight
Imma ball on earth you ball in the sky
You remember what I told you this our last ride

THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF AUSTIN GENERAL, JR.

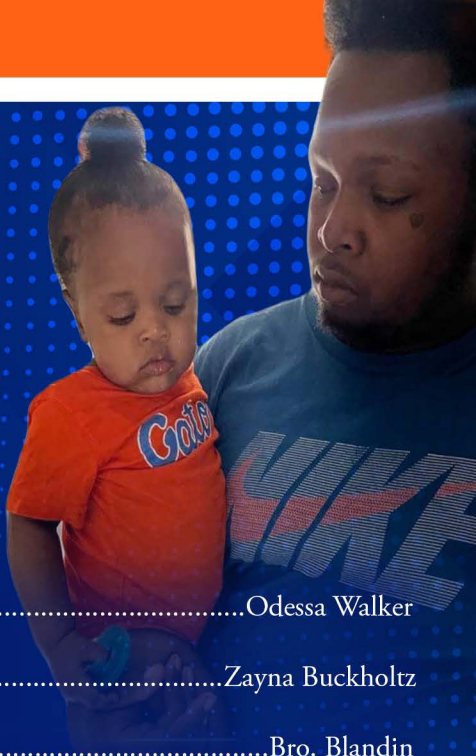

AUSTIN GENERAL, JR. A.K.A. JUNE BUG was born on June 9, 2001, in Jacksonville, Florida to Austin General, Sr. and Latiffany Gallion. He attended the local schools of Duval County and had several goals that he was working towards accomplishing prior to his untimely passing.

Although he appeared to be tough, Austin was a gentle teddy bear with one of the warmest smiles you could have ever seen. To know him was to love him. He was very caring, kind, genuine, encouraging, protective, loyal and would do anything for those he loved. Austin was very family oriented and known to his parents, siblings, and best friends as “playful and goofy”. He gave them funny nicknames, did silly dances, told jokes nonstop and rapped, even though that was not his thing. Austin loved his parents more than they could ever know. Austin and his siblings were inseparable and shared a special bond. His best friends were more like his brothers, and he stayed true to them until the very end. Austin enjoyed making money and dreamed of being rich one day so he could take care of his family. He was a beast on the field and had a strong passion for football; His favorite teams were the Florida Gators and Jacksonville Jaguars. One of his proudest moments was when he became a father. He loved Amari with every bone in his body and ensured that he didn’t want for anything. Their bond was undeniable. Austin was raised in the church and had a personal relationship with GOD. He was our baby, and we loved him dearly. Austin will be deeply missed.

Austin was preceded in death by his loving grandmother: Julia General; and uncle: Joe Carey.

Austin is survived by his son: Amari “A3” General; mother: Latiffany Gallion; father: Austin General, Sr.; sisters: Keshayla General and Malaysia General; brothers: Daishawn Loveday and Antonio General; nephew: Daishawn “DJ” Loveday, Jr.; grandmother: Marilyn Evans; grandfathers: Jerry Gallion, Sr. and Walter General Sr.; aunts: Alisa Carey, Jovi Gallion, Jessica General and Nakia General; uncles: Timothy Gallion (Kennisha), Terrance Gallion, Carl General, Walter General, Jr. (Shanta) and Jerry Gallion, Jr.; special companion: Dynasia Duncan; bonus daughter: Anasia; lifelong friends: Donald Johnson, Derrick Wilcox, Michael Daniels and Keith Jones; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
