ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers if so, we saw them there. Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words, whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.

HIS STORY

MR. FREDERICK MARIO HOOVER was born on Sunday, May 2, 1976 in Jacksonville, Florida to James Clinton McCray and Darlene Lynette Nesmith. He answered his Lord and Savior and entered a sweet rest on Friday, June 23, 2023. During his school years he attended Lola M. Culver Elementary, Jean Ribault Middle, and Jean Ribault High schools. He was a loyal and dedicated employee for over twenty years at The Pig Bar B Que and Seafood restaurant. Frederick was known as the Bar B Que man for all family events. Frederick loved his family but most of all he really loved kids. He was big on family and always ensured everybody got together. He believed that you should always show love towards everyone. He was the life of the party. Mr. Hoover was also known as a “Mama’s Boy” and a “Girls Dad”. He made every effort to ensure his Mother had everything she needed and in most cases the things she wanted as well. Additionally, he was big on being the best father a girl could have or ask for.

Frederick was an active and faithful member of Queen Esther Church of God in Unity for many years.

Mr. Hoover was preceded in death by his sons: Nathaniel and Malcom Hoover; sister: LaCherica Robinson; and brother: James Evans.

Those left to honor his legacy are his five daughters: Fredericka Hoover; Shakemba Hoover (Craig Williams); Ariel Hoover; Diana Hoover; and Tierrah Harris; grandson: Kylan Christopher Williams; parents: Darlene Nesmith (Derrick); and James McCray (Melinda); siblings; Janettiar Hoover; Marvette Holcomb (Omar Holcomb, Sr.); Leonard Williams; Katrina evans; Jamie Evans; Rosa Evans; Antwan Robinson; Clint Robinson; Trentin Robinson; Roderick Lundy (Tawanna Lundy); and Tesalyn Waddell (Johnathan Waddell); special nephews: Darien Walker, Jr.; and Dallas Walker; favorite niece: Lea’Trice Ellis; favorite cousin: Michael Emery; and goddaughter: Shateria Adams; several aunts and uncles; and a host of other relatives and friends.
