

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

FALLEN LIMB

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
 I keep hearing a voice that says "Grieve not for me.
 Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
 The good life I lived while I was strong,
 Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
 Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
 My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
 Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
 Continue traditions, no matter how small.
 Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
 I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
 Until the day comes we're together again."

Darrell's LIFE STORY

Darrell L. Odom affectionately known as "Big D" was born on July 27, 1979 in St. Augustine, Florida to Willie and Juanita Odom. He attended the public schools of St. John's and Duval County. He was employed with Southeastern Environmental Services.

Big D was a gentle giant with a heart of gold and his smile could light up any room. He had a positive impact on anyone he was in contact with. Caring for his family was a top priority. When things were asked of him, his response was "I got you" not sure if no was in his vocabulary. Football was his favorite sport. He was a Seminoles and Jaguar fan. His favorite hobby was restoring older model cars. Big D was the nucleus that brought the family together and his presence will surely be missed by us all.

He was preceded in death by his father: Willie Odom; his grandparents, two aunts and one uncle.

He leaves to cherish his memories: mother: Juanita Odom; brothers: Travus and Clarence; sister: LaShawnda; nephews: Trayvus, Shaun and Zaiante; nieces: Tamia, Kiera, Kaitlin, Aasiah, Khaniya, Mariah, Arriyanna, Amaia and Zaniyah; aunts: Marie, Diane, Mary, Denise, Linda, Janice and Alma; uncles: Frank Jr and Herman; special friend Alicia, and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Son, My Son

Son, my son-
The light, the joy, the hope now gone in a moment,
Leaving only grief.
Son, my son-
The hugs, the laugh we shared will echo on,
Your spirit never leaves.
Son, my son-
Though far from sight, you'll live in memories,
Our love unites.
Son, my son-
Your life was brief yet beautiful, My boy, my flesh and blood-
Forever in my heart.
