

A MESSAGE FROM DAN . . . . .

Though I'm gone in the flesh, my love will remain,
No matter if your day is filled with sunshine or rain.

Remember me in laughter, in tears, and in song,
Sing "Stay In My Corner" and you can never go wrong.
To my wife Ann, my partner, the Proverbs 31 woman that you are,
Together we raised our family, you are my shining star.
To my six children, you're my pride, my joy, and my light,
You brought me laughter, tears, and sooo much delight.
To my 29 grandchildren, you've been my bundles of fun,
You brought sunshine to my life, each of you, one by one.
To my brothers and sisters, I have loved you with all my heart.

The love we shared kept us close and never far apart.

I enjoyed telling the stories of the family's history,
so how we were reared is not a mystery.

This is not the end, so put nothing on hold,
there are still many stories to be told.

My love for you will never, ever fade away,
It will shine brightly like the sun, each and every day.

So hold on tight, and never live in fear,

For our God will protect you,

He's here, He's there; He's everywhere!

DANIEL'S STORY

DANIEL WILCOX "BIG D" was born in Jacksonville, Florida on Monday, November 3, 1952 to parents Samuel Wilcox, Sr. and Elsie Mae Wilcox. He was baptized at Mt. Canaan Baptist Church and educated in Duval County Schools, graduating from Matthew Gilbert High School. He retired from Parliament Warehouse.

Daniel was a loving family man. His wife, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren meant the world to him. He was a passionate football fan, supporting the Florida Gators and Pittsburgh Steelers. He was a funny guy who enjoyed people and loved to make them laugh. His family affectionately called him "Channel 4 News" whenever he shared news with them. Daniel's three daughters were "daddy's girls" and everyone who knew Daniel knew that his three daughters felt they were his wives, and they called his wife (their mom) his girlfriend. As a tradition, Daniel's three sons spent every Sunday with him watching sports on television. Daniel also loved singing, fishing, and gardening.

Daniel was preceded in death by his parents: Samuel Wilcox, Sr. and Elsie Mae Wilcox; two of his grandchildren: Jaquan and Donovan; his brother: Richard; his sisters: Joyce Marie, Lucille, and Darlene; his grandmother: Lucille; and his sister-in-law: Bernice.

Daniel departed this life for a heavenly reward on Friday, December 15, 2023 and leaves to cherish his precious memories: his devoted wife and best friend Angelina; his children: Daniel (Trina), Andrea (Akeem), Andre (Sheena); Dantrice, Vontrese, and Darnell; grandchildren: Daniel Jr., Bryzon, Bri, Daneri, Diamond, Danielle, Daizon, Eric, Kaniyah, Kaleeah, Zayla, Audriana, Andril, Andre, Deandra, Shaniyah, Kameron, Kynaia, Kyeree, Kyra, Kyejuan, Dimitri, Alyssa, Skye, Sa'von, Semir, Mylah, Amir, Darielle and Antwan, his four great-grandchildren; his brothers: Samuel Jr., George (Shirley), and Robert (Linda Kay); his sisters: Barbara Jean (Kenneth), Linda, and Elaine (James); his mother in law: Lelia Johnson; his brothers-in-law: Rickey, Shawn, Gregory, Ricky and Devin; his sisters-in-law: Trina (David), Joyce (Pete) and Trasi; special Aunt Joyce Grant, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and close friends. His legacy of love and laughter will be cherished by all who knew him.
