MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

LIFE STORY

MICAH THOMAS was born June 2, 2009 to Vernita Smith and Terry Thomas. He attended Joshua Christian Academy/Potters House Christian Academy Elementary School, JEB Stuart Middle School, Raines Senior High School (9th grade) and Ribault Senior High School. He was a hardworking, intelligent and funny kid with an infectious smile that could light up a room with his “one dimple.”

He was a loving person to all of his family, especially his siblings; he was their protector. Although Micah had older siblings, he protected them all. His loyalty ran deep for all that he knew, and his friends held a special place in his heart.

If you ever had an encounter with Micah, you would know his strong passion for breeding dogs and his strong desire to one day become a well-known dog breeder. He also had a natural talent of riding any dirt bike “catwalk style”!

Micah was wise beyond his years and touched many souls in the short time he was with us. He was special to so many people. We all have very fond memories that we can share and will hold on to for the rest of our life. MICAH was one of a kind.

He leaves to cherish his life; his beloved and dedicated mother: Vernita Smith (Trae); father: Terry Thomas, Sr.; loving and devoted grandmothers: Nina Smith, Estella T. King; grandfather: Carl Smith, Sr., eight loving sisters: Caterria Holliday (Tony), Tamia Thomas, Tamyia Thomas, Iyonna Jackson, Samaya James, Terri Thomas, Taniyah Thomas and Ariyah Byrd; three dedicated brothers: Terry Thomas, Jr, Maliq Byrd and Terry Thomas III; niece: Aubrie; nephew: Landon; uncles: Sr. Chief Carl E. Smith and Jason Smith (Pam); loving Godmother: Tina Powell; and a host of many other uncles, aunts, family and friends to include devoted friends, Andre Robinson and Victor Jones.
