

MY MOTHER

For as long as I can remember, you have been by my side.

*To give me support
To give me confidence
To give me help*

For as long as I can remember, you have always been the person

*I looked up to
So strong
So Sensitive
So pretty*

*For as long as I can remember and still today
You are everything a mother should be*

For as long as I can remember, you have always provided stability.

*Within our family
Full of laughter
Full of tears
Full of love*

*So much of what I have become is because of you
And I want you to know that I appreciate you*

*Mama, thank you,
I love you and I will miss you more than words can express.*

Your baby,

Yvonne

THE LIFE OF Jacqueline MADDOX

Ms. Jacqueline Maddox was born in Brundidge, Alabama on May 22, 1945 to Rev. Thomas & Mrs. Dessie B. Maddox. She attended Pike County Public Schools and after graduation she furthered her education and graduated from Paine College in Birmingham, Alabama. She taught in the Alabama Public School System for several years.

Ms. Jackie relocated to Jacksonville in 1982. She was a proud City of Jacksonville employee for over 25 plus years in various positions, including Consumer Affairs Investigator and Customer Service Supervisor. She also served as the Council Aid for former Council Members Terry Fields and Terry Wood. She was a member of the Life Point Church and past member of the Sanctuary at Mt. Calvary.

Jackie was a woman to be "reckoned" with! She had very strong beliefs, which she did NOT have a problem sharing with anyone. Especially, when it came to her beloved daughter! A humanitarian at heart, Jackie would give you her absolute last. She was a woman of strong faith. She was an AME-raised, Baptist believing, Pentecostal Saint who didn't mind singing and shouting to the glory of the Almighty God, anywhere she could!

Her parents, Great-grandmother Minnie Kancler, and Uncle Willie D. Kancler, preceded her in death.

She is survived by her one and only daughter: Yvonne; one sister: Lillie Bell Blackshear; two brothers: Rev. Ronald Brown (Carolyn) and Arthur Lee Brown, all of Jacksonville; three grandchildren: Jody Norman, Stevahn Mitchell, and Syrr Lane. She shared a special bond with Yvonne's father, Mr. Johnny Mitchell. Her co-caregiver and adoptive daughter: Deidre Lane; close friend: Wanda Lott; three great-grands: Joviahn, Da'Vahn, and Marc Aaron along with a host of other relatives and friends.
