

SHE IS GONE

You can shed tears that she is gone
 Or you can smile because she has lived
 You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
 Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left
 Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
 Or you can be full of the love that you shared
 You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
 Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday
 You can remember her and only that she is gone
 Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on
 You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
 Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

THE LIFE & LEGACY OF SHELLEY M. HAMILTON

SHELLEY M. HAMILTON was born in Jacksonville, Florida, on August 4, 1950, to Thomas C. Mallory & Rannie Mae Davis Mallory. She attended the local public schools, graduating from Eugene J. Butler High School, Class of 1968. After high school, she attended Jones Business College.

She was married to David N. Hamilton, Sr. and the two were inseparable.

Shellye worked at Prudential for a number of years and in 1980, she began working for Children and Family Services as a Senior Social Worker and retired after 35 years of service.

As a child, Shellye joined Mt. Calvary Baptist Church and sang in the L.R. Burns Choir under the leadership of Pastor Davis. Later, she joined Philadelphia Missionary Baptist Church, where she served and assisted around the church in various departments, including the Youth Department and Deaconess Ministry.

She was preceded in death by: Her parents: Thomas C. Mallory and Rannie Mae Davis Mallory; brother: Leroy Mallory; brother-in-law: James Brant and sister-in-law: Joanett Hamilton.

She is survived by her only daughter: Shellene Morris Boze. Shellye later married the love of her life David N. Hamilton Sr.; upon this union she gained two sons. She leaves to cherish her loving husband David N. Hamilton Sr.; children: Shellene (Timothy) Boze, David (Gwen) Hamilton Jr. and Lonnie (Nicolle) Johnson; eight grandchildren: Ty Boze, Tae Boze, Timotheus Boze, Demetrius Boze, Heaven Hamilton, Jasmine Hamilton, Lona'e Johnson, and Branden Johnson. A goddaughter: Sydney Stephens; five Siblings: John Thomas (JoAnn) Mallory, Patricia Grays, Phyllis Jordan Washington, Denise Brant and two loving sisters Brenda Mallory Small and Jackie Wells; two brothers-in-law: Tommy Brown and Nathaniel Hamilton; sisters-in-law: Carrie (David) Manor and Brenda Hamilton; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great nephews, cousins, and life-long friends. Shellye's infectious laugh, sense of humor, leadership, loving personality, and bossiness was her trademark. She will be deeply missed by so many.
