

GOOD, GOOD MORNING

*In the wee, wee hours of the morning;
you come dear lord to take my breath away,*

*You come to give me comfort;
and you come to give me peace.*

*I know that whatever happens from here;
I'm just resting in your hands.*

*Please dear Lord, hold me tight;
don't let me slip or fall.*

*I say that even though I know;
I'm safe forever in your care.*

*I just want to breathe one more time;
to tell my family goodbye.*

*Hallelujah Jesus! Hallelujah;
I love y'all truly I do.*

*Be good to one another;
momma's gonna be okay.*

*I'm in God's hand now,
sweet blessings to all of you.*

*By: Rev. Michael K. Lane (I heard your heart)
"I love you momma"*

MARTHA'S

LIFE & LEGACY

Martha Mae Jackson was born in Claxton, Georgia on November 3, 1935, to St. Clair Miller, Sr., and Shellie McCoy Miller. She graduated from Claxton High School, Class of 1956.

In 1965, Martha furthered her education by attending business school.

In 1981, Martha married her forever love, Robert L. Jackson, the two were the best of friends and inseparable.

Martha was employed by the Jacksonville Public Library and retired in 1998.

She was an active member of New Bethlehem Missionary Baptist Church where she served as Church Mother. She also served in many other capacities such as: Sunday School Teacher, Usher's Ministry, Deaconess' Ministry, New Members Class Coordinator and President of District #8. Martha was a Den Mother for Boy Scouts where she served for two years, PTSA President of Ribault High School for four years, Girl Scouts Troop Leader 346 for seven years and Vie Leido Ladies Social Club for over forty years.

Martha was an all-around fun and loving person with an infectious personality. She was one who touched and left an impression on everyone she met. She loved her family and was all about family gatherings. She loved going to special venues with Jack setting up their business at World of Nations, Flea Markets and Festivals.

On April 26, 2024, Martha went to her prepared mansion and left this life of toil.

She was preceded in death by her father: St. Clair Miller, Sr; mother: Shellie McCoy Miller; sister: Viola Hall; daughter: Valencia Lane and brother: St. Clair Miller, Jr.

Martha leaves to mourn her loving husband of forty-three years: Robert L. Jackson; sons: Ned "Lucky" Lane, Jr, Rev. Michael K. Lane, Sr; daughters: Jennifer Lane, Sharon "Lil Bit" Jackson (Tamara); adopted daughter: Kelli Heath (Steve); eight grandchildren: Arthur (Mel), Jammoria, Briana, Arnitt Jr., Rashaud, Tameka (Dietrick), Diree and Pastor Michael Lane, II (Danielle); devoted caretaker: Eva Bush and a host of other relatives and friends.
