LINDA'S LIFE STORY

Linda Lou Chaney affectionately known as Granny and Lou Lou was born in Knoxville, Tennessee on June 1, 1941, to Willis Chaney & Arite Lou Axley – Chaney.

On August 7, 1967, she married the love of her life Leon Levi Robinson.

Lou Lou was a remarkable individual whose presence illuminated the lives of those around her. A fervent advocate for literacy, Linda had a passion for reading that knew no bounds. Whether she was engrossed in the pages of a novel or solving a crossword puzzle, her love for literature was evident to all who knew her. In addition to her literary pursuits, Linda possessed a talent for crocheting and creating beautiful works with her skilled hands.

Above all, Lou Lou adored her family. Her love knew no bounds, and she poured her heart and soul into nurturing and caring for those she held dear. She was known for her sassy attitude and compassionate heart, always ready with a quick wit and a kind word.

As the grandmother to many and the unofficial neighborhood watch of Race and Lockwood in Chicago, Illinois, Linda played an integral role in her community. Her porch was a haven for those seeking counsel and comfort, and her home was always open to family and friends. Many found solace in her wisdom and guidance, and her impact on those around her was immeasurable.

Linda's faith was a cornerstone of her life. Baptized and filled with the Holy Ghost at Christ Church of Hampton, VA, she remained steadfast in her devotion to God. After relocating to Jacksonville, FL, Linda found spiritual nourishment under the leadership of the honorable Bishop A. L. Luster until her passing.

On May 6, 2024, Lou Lou passed away peacefully, leaving behind cherished memories and a legacy of love. Though Linda may no longer be with us in body, her spirit lives on in the hearts of all fortunate enough to know her. She leaves a legacy of love, kindness, and compassion that will continue to inspire and uplift us for years.

Linda was preceded in death by her parents: Willis and Artie Chaney; husband: Leon Robinson; sons: Russell Robinson and Darrell Isbill; sisters: Elvia Presley and June Easter; brothers: Homer, Charles, Joseph, and Ellis.

She is survived by three children: Stevie Leon Robinson (Luvera), Steven Marion Isbill (Connie) and Angela Lee Taylor (Ernest); eleven grand-children: Trevor, Randy, Valyncia, Andre, Russell, Jr., Germond, Tremain, Willie, Mercedes, Chemaka, and Angel; twenty-four great-grandchildren: Jayla, Lyric, Jayliah, Jady, Iyana, Jael, Trey, Andre Jr., Ryland, Treasure, Vegas, Rickey, Emauri, Mason, Khailan, Ahijah, Nanala, Gael, Isaiah, Nahiya, Mahogany, Nagmah, Wynter, and Travaris and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
