

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be so He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away
and although we love you dearly
we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Acknowledgements

There is no gift greater than love. We really appreciate all the love everyone has shown us. We have seen the love of family and the true meaning of friendship. The thoughtfulness expressed in so many comforting words during your visits, phone calls, text, conversations and any act of kindness; this has given us strength and inspiration to make our burden lighter. May God continue to bless each of you.

BETTY Jean

Betty Jean was born July 7, 1938, in Pelham, Georgia to Charlie Mae and Willie Wilson. She attended local schools of Duval County, graduating from Old Stanton High School, class of 1956. Betty received Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age. She became a member of Mt. Sinai MBC from an adolescent and remained until she took her last breath. Betty Jean enjoyed working with the Children's Choir and the Youth Usher Board.

Betty Jean wore a beautiful smile that could light up any room. She would often use encouraging words in her everyday conversations. Betty Jean believed in "putting your best on the outside, so your mind could catch up". Fashion Fair make up, sweet-smelling perfume, snazzy wigs and costume jewelry were some of her favorite things. She even had a tag on her car, with the moniker, "Cutie Pie".

Betty received certifications in the nursing field, retiring from Moosehaven Retirement Community of Orange Park, Florida.

Betty was preceded in death by her mother: Charlie Mae Wilson; father: Willie Wilson; oldest daughter: Cheryl Wilson; bonus son: Wayne Grant; granddaughter: Gina Mangram; one and only grandson: Shaheed Grant and brothers: Willie Jr., John Henry, Mack Wesley, and Charles Wilson.

Betty leaves to cherish her memory, her children: Teryl Wilson, Phyllis (Majid) Salaam, P. Michelle Grant, Valorie Grant and one son, N. Lynard Grant; bonus children: Wanda Artis (Percell) and Darrell Grant; sisters: Alice Melton, Deloris (William) Robinson and Leila (Leroy) Mervin; brothers: Jerome Wilson and Tony Wilson; granddaughters: Nichole Wilson, Natasha Watkins, Cheryl Wilson, Latrease Miller, Crystal Grant, Kristin Ansley, Tempestt Ansley, Jahmela Salaam, Kiara Ansley, Genae Mangram and Teriyah Evans; best friend: Julia Floyd and a host of great-grandkids, family and friends.
