

TO THOSE WHOM I LOVE &
THOSE WHO LOVE ME

When I am gone, release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do,

You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,

But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess

How much you've given me in happiness.

I thank you for the love that you have shown,

But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It is only for a while that we must part,

So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.

And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,

All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home'.

THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF

WILLIE

WILLIE EDWARD WALKER, beloved son of the late Joe Walker and Daisy Walker, was born February 9, 1942, in Jacksonville, Florida. He attended the public schools of Duval County. After working various jobs in Jacksonville, Willie retired from Henry's Hickory House as a supervisor after thirty plus years of employment.

Willie accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior at an early age and joined the family church, Zion Hope Missionary Baptist Church under the pastorate of Rev. E. R. Simpson. Willie and his wife of twenty-six years, Angela Walker joined First Timothy Baptist Church in February 2002.

On July 25, 2024, God saw that Willie was getting weary, so he did what he thought was best. He came and stood beside him and whispered, "Come and rest".

Willie was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers: Joe Walker and Freddie Walker and two sisters: Patricia Walker and Joann Davis.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his devoted wife: Angela Walker; daughter: Sabrina Walker Kirkland; bonus sons: David (Daphney) Walker, Christopher (Phebe) Holder and Darren (Rodreana) Holder; grandsons: Junious (Jasmine) Walker and Kevin Kirkland, Jr.; sister: Deloris (Vernon) Simmons; seven great-grandsons and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.
