GATHRINE'S Qife & Qegacy

CATHRINE CLARK ALBRIGHT, affectionately known as "Cat", born on August 10, 1946, in Macon, Georgia, was a remarkable woman whose life touched many hearts. She was the cherished daughter of Alphonso Clark and Willie Mae Alford Clark and the beloved sister to six brothers and two sisters. Her journey led her to Jacksonville, where she graduated from Matthew W. Gilbert High School in the Class of 1964.

In January 1966, Cathrine's life took a beautiful turn when she met her future husband, with whom she welcomed two wonderful daughters into the world. Although she and her former husband, John W. Albright, eventually went their separate ways, Cathrine remained a proud and devoted single mother. She balanced the demands of raising her children with her passions and career.

Cathrine worked tirelessly as a Service Hospital Technician at University Hospital (now UF Health) for twenty-six years, a testament to her unwavering commitment and dedication. She was also a founding member of Greater New Birth in 1998. Her entrepreneurial spirit shone brightly as she successfully managed several businesses over the years. Her love for learning also led her to take courses at Edward Waters College, furthering her knowledge and skills.

Cathrine's heart was always open, and she spent many years as a loving and devoted foster mother, offering care and support to children in need.

Cathrine peacefully transitioned on Wednesday, August 28, 2024, at Memorial Hospital. She has united in heaven with her former husband: John W. Albright; parents: Alphonso and Willie Mae Clark and siblings: Barbara Jean Kirce, Geraldine Hines, Augusta Jones, Cyril Jones, Ernest Jones, William Clark and Robert Clark.

She leaves behind a legacy of love and strength in her daughters: Tonette D. Waye and Vicki L. Obamwonyi; precious grandchildren: Kayla Victoria Obamwonyi and Ashanti Cierna; brother: Lynwood Clark (Cynthia) and a multitude of nieces, nephews and cousins. She will be fondly remembered by her close friends Marshia Waye, William Brown, Carrie Brown and Lula Brown. She will be fondly remembered by her close friends: Marshia Waye, Carrie Brown and Lula Brown and special friend: William Brown.
