

To Those I Love

*When I am gone, just release me, let me go so I can move into my afterglow. You mustn't tie me down with your tears; let's be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you have given me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I travel on alone. So, grieve for me a while, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted with trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart. And then, when you must come this way alone, I will greet you with a smile and say,
"WELCOME HOME."*

Jonathon's Journey

Jonathon Nelson, affectionately known as "Fatty", was born in Waukegan, Illinois on April 8, 1981, to Flora Ester Nelson and Johnny Hardison. He attended North Chicago High School, graduating in 1998. After high school, he attended Parkside College.

Later, Jonathon obtained a certification as a Licensed Barber and started his own business called Platinum Players Barbershop.

Fatty was very skilled in various areas including cutting hair, skating, dancing, shooting pool and riding motorcycles. His personality was unmatched. He was quite an entertainer to say the least. Fatty especially loved cooking for his family and friends in his home.

Jonathon enjoyed life to the fullest as he went about bringing cheer to those around him and could make the saddest person laugh at his jokes. He had a great sense of humor and was sure to always make you laugh. His family and friends would often say he missed out on his calling as a comedian.
